

“Don’t move for me, gentlemen. I simply must learn to park in tight places.”

“All right, you’ve made the biggest hamburger sandwich in the world. So now what?”

"If you really love him and he's pulling down twenty-five bucks a week, I'd advise you to go ahead and marry him."

"This is Mr. Brownloe. He likes horses."

“... and a box of old-fashioned wooden matches that you can strike on the seat of your pants.”

"All I can say is, that's the hat you came in with."

"Children, it's snowing!"

"Clotheshorse!"

THE RENASCENCE OF RUGGED INDIVIDUALISM
The Tenant of Knickerbocker Village Who Reverted to Neighborhood Practice

Carl Rose (1/4/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Could you include some place where I can use my Esperanto?"

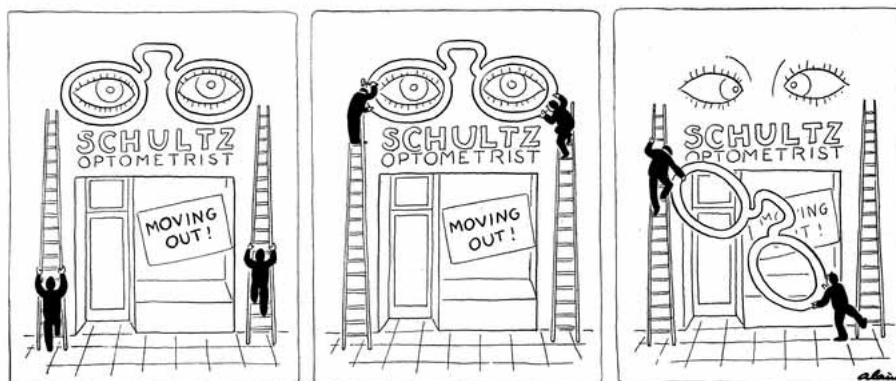

"He's the best guard in the history of our school."

*“Tell them why don’t they wait till Easter to make payment, so then we can buy some nice fresh rabbit eggs with the money.
And make it sound humorous, Miss Epstein, not sarcastic.”*

“May I have that large head size when you’re through with it, Miss Phelps?”

“Don’t you think it’s sweet the way the Republicans want to help the country?”

"May I see your ticket stub?"

"He's got Indian blood."

"You'd think she'd rather forget Mexico. She got ringworm there."

"All they do when I ask for a raise is to give me another telephone."

1

2

3

4

5

6

"Let's get out of this hole."

"He says why don't we line up a couple of dames the next time his ship is in."

“Now don’t you worry for a minute—I’ll drive the car.”

"I must confess I feel somewhat like a bull in a china shop."

*“We’re just a little mite cross this morning, Doctor.
We didn’t sleep well.”*

“Unless you’d prefer something for active sports.”

"I told you we shouldn't let them have that book of magic."

"I'm supposed to be at a meeting at Town Hall today, and just look at me!"

“Now, see here, Miss Watkins! Just because you’ve been appointed head filing clerk, there’s no excuse for this.”

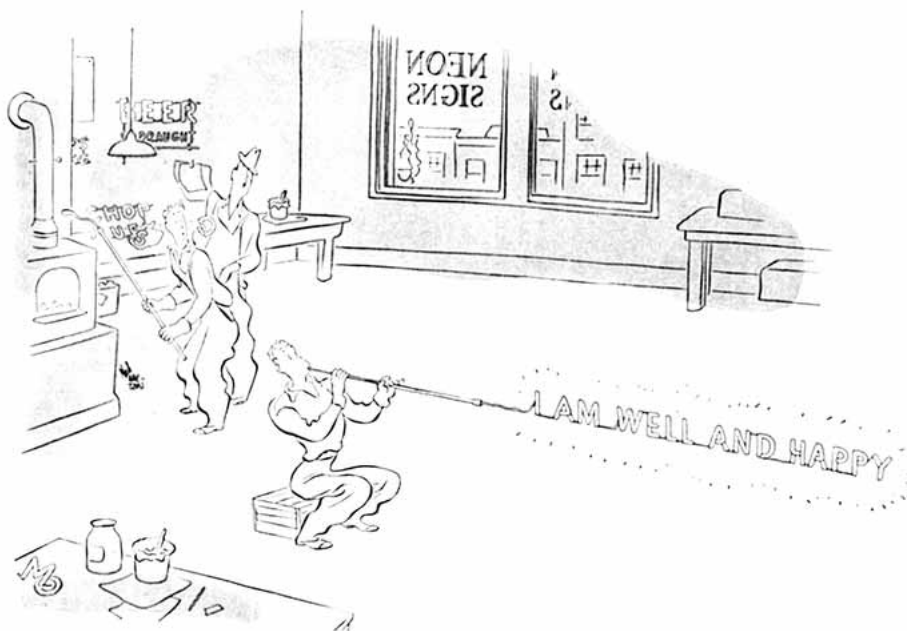

"But, honey, the man told me that this was a sultan's outfit."

“Do you mind if I bring along an old friend by the name of Mr. Leider—or Snyder?”

THE BARBER'S BIBLE

CLUB LIFE IN AMERICA

The Candle Pinners Roll for the Mixed Doubles Cup

"I just heard Herbert say 'Ergo.' That means if we don't do something we won't get out of here till two o'clock."

“With a hey-nonny-nonny and a nuts to you!”

“Pardon me. I believe we met at Saks-Fifth Avenue.”

“Just a moment, ladies and gentlemen, while Mr. Rosenberg is finding out what it is.”

“Er—I hardly know what to say.”

"I'm looking for my wife—tall, blonde, in a leopard coat with her slip showing."

"I'm taking a course in lip-reading."

“It may look haphazard, but it’s really very scientific.”

Return to Main Menu ►

"He's unstable, but he's not unattractive."

“Goodbye! Don’t forget to go through the Shredded Wheat factory.”

"Can you use us for atmosphere?"

"I got it at a January White Sale."

THE RENASCENCE OF RUGGED INDIVIDUALISM
The Bryn Mawr Sophomore Who Wore a Town Ensemble and Correct Accessories on the Campus

Carl Rose (1/25/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Sears, Roebuck sometimes baffle me. I ordered tin pans.”

“Try it, Walter. It’s fun.”

"I'm going to be brutally frank with you, Mr. Darnley."

"You showed up again today on my cardiogram."

“The buyer will be right down to interpret it for you.”

"After I've tried every known system, she's breaking the bank with that silly ibbity-bibbity-sibbity-sab stuff!"

“Senator, may I present Mr. Beasley of the TVA, formerly of the NRA and the AAA?”

"I let Morton run wild in the foyer."

"This is Mrs. Taylor, Minerva. I kept admiring her, so Mr. Taylor said I could have her."

“She’s really a very good-looking woman—with her hat off.”

“Listen to this: ‘I played gouley on the hockey team for a while, but got hit in the eye by a puck and have been in the infirmary for three days. The regular trained nurse is sick and her substitute is a young and plenty smooth. Would it make any difference if I didn’t come home for Easter as Saunders has just bought a used Harley-Davidson and wants me to go with him to Mammoth Cave in Kentucky in connection with Geology III. How’s the old arthritis coming along?’ ”

“Well, Chief, you’ve guessed so much, you might as well know everything.”

SMALL FRY
THE CLASSROOM (1 OF 6)

Breathing Exercises

SMALL FRY
THE CLASSROOM (2 OF 6)

Problem

SMALL FRY
THE CLASSROOM (3 OF 6)

Disrupting Influence

SMALL FRY
THE CLASSROOM (4 OF 6)

Don Juan

SMALL FRY
THE CLASSROOM (5 OF 6)

Dreamer

SMALL FRY
THE CLASSROOM (6 OF 6)

Spelling Bee

“Mr. Williams, the sponsor—he wants to know if he can play the drums.”

“Boo!”

"See here, Harris, what's going on in there?"

“Has Richard Halliburton written anything lately or has he settled down?”

“Are you always on the defensive like this, Miss Sharp?”

"I arrested a guy once—in 1923."

"Pardon me, what breed is that?"

"Sinister, isn't it?"

“If the Department of Sanitation ignores us, let us ignore the Department of Sanitation.”

"We'll have to go around the Horn. They won't take a check."

*"That's the trouble with big parties.
People are always drifting into little cliques."*

"I got spots before my eyes, doctor. Look!"

“Why don’t you lovely people come and live with us?” he says to the Marples. That’s when I first discovered he was tight.”

"Here comes Reboux to the rescue!"

“Wise guy, huh?”

"I could drive on like this forever, darling, but what do you say we stop at Reuben's for a sandwich?"

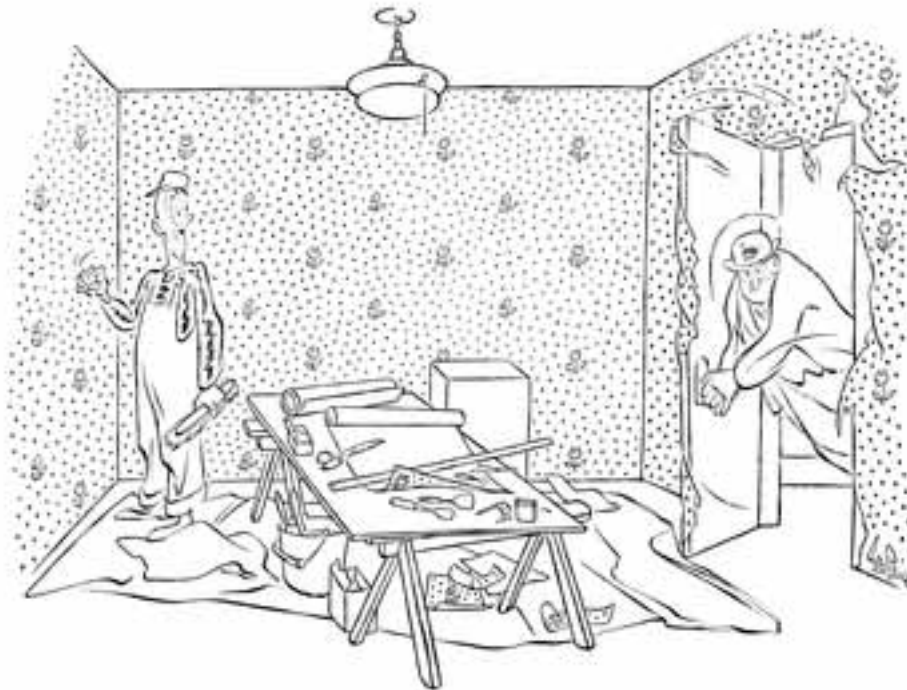

HOLY WEDLOCK
Home-Lover

“Never took a music lesson in his life.”

“Could you use a pair of opera seats, Joe? There’s been a little change in our plans.”

“So that's where the door is!”

"He says he wants the kind that eats flies."

“See you at the barricades, Mr. Whitsonby!”

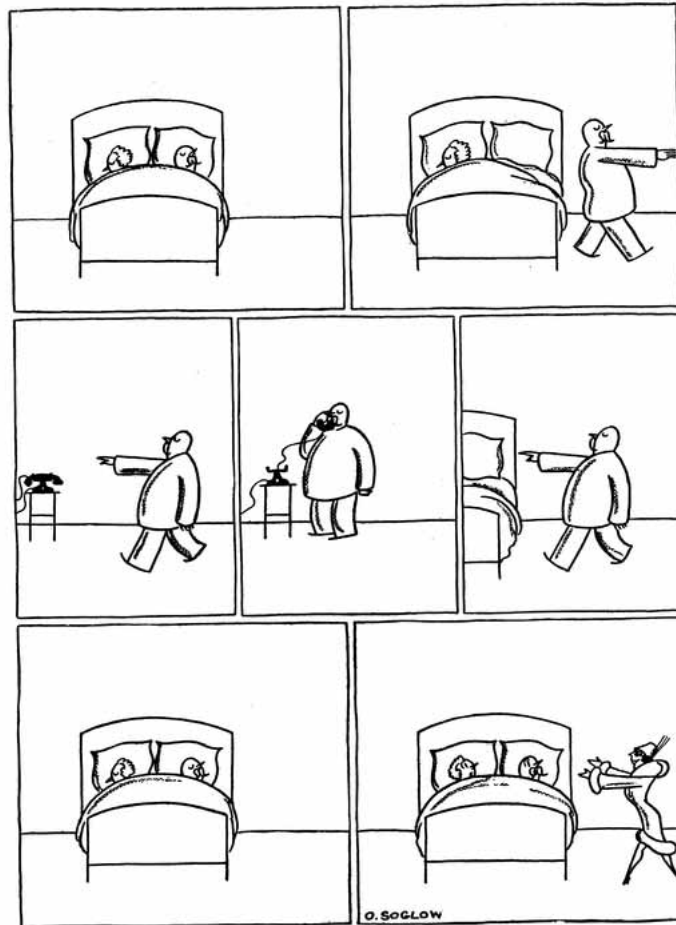

"Sorry, old man. It had to be one of us."

“He said it would make a better composition.”

“Of course, in this changeable weather, the poor skin doesn’t know what it’s all about.”

"I don't read books. If they're any good, they make the grade in the movies."

"I'm sure he said, 'Squads right.'"

"Those dry points I was speaking of are in the next room, Mr. Norris."

"I wish I'd known you were going to dress up."

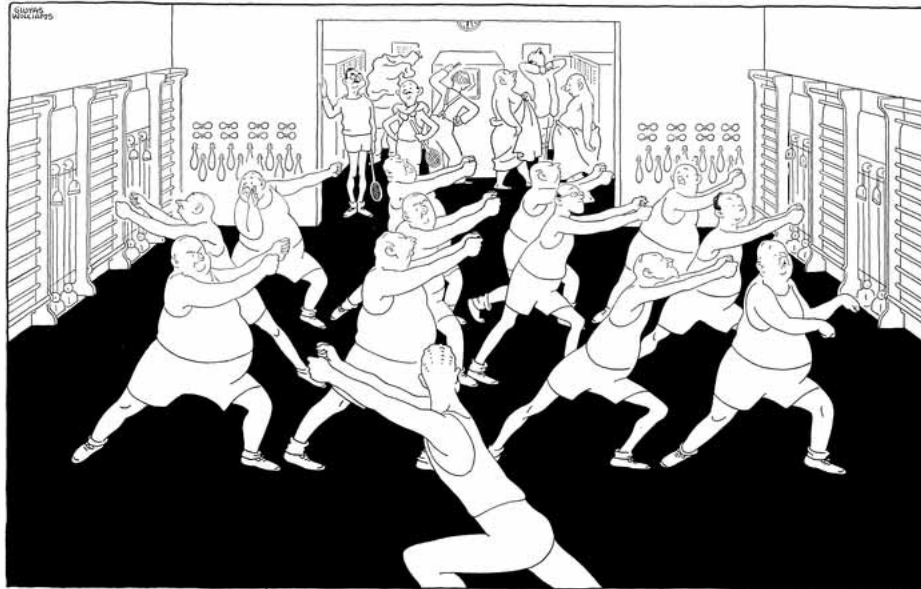

“He has his law degree and a small furnished office. It’s just a question now of getting him out of bed.”

HOLY WEDLOCK
The Weeps

"He's a trusty."

CLUB LIFE IN AMERICA

The Class in Health-Building Meets at the Athletic Club

*"We'll have to be more careful, darling.
I think my husband is getting suspicious."*

SNOW TRAIN (1 OF 5)

Waxes: Ostbye versus Bratlie

SNOW TRAIN (2 OF 5)

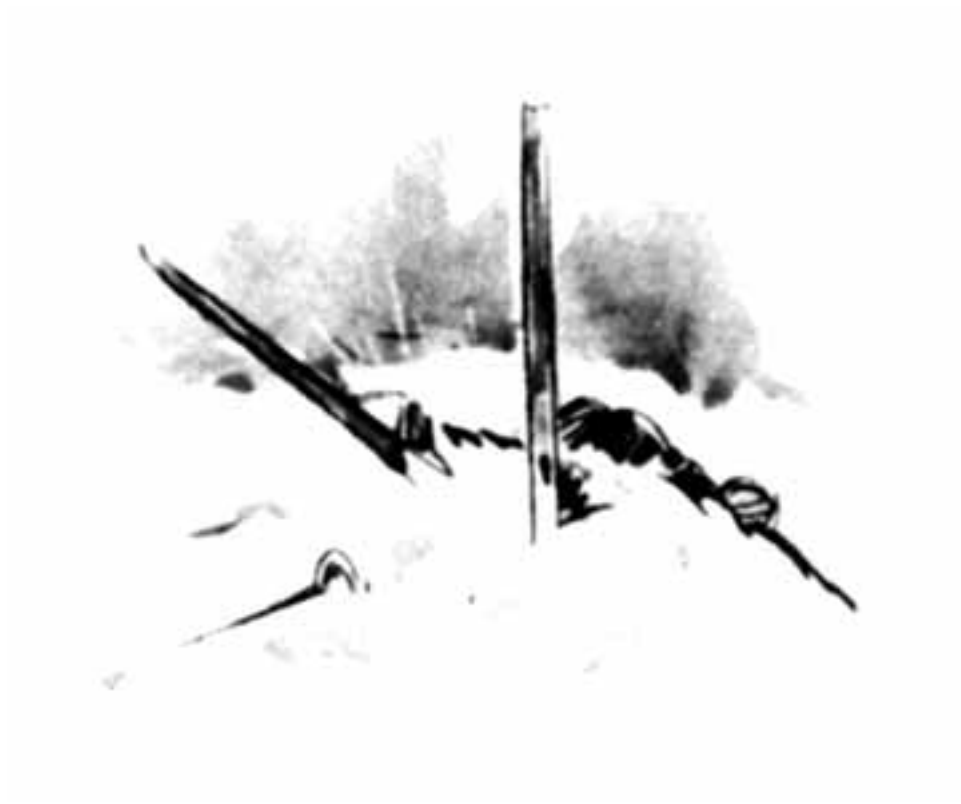

Towing Service

SNOW TRAIN (3 OF 5)

SNOW TRAIN (4 OF 5)

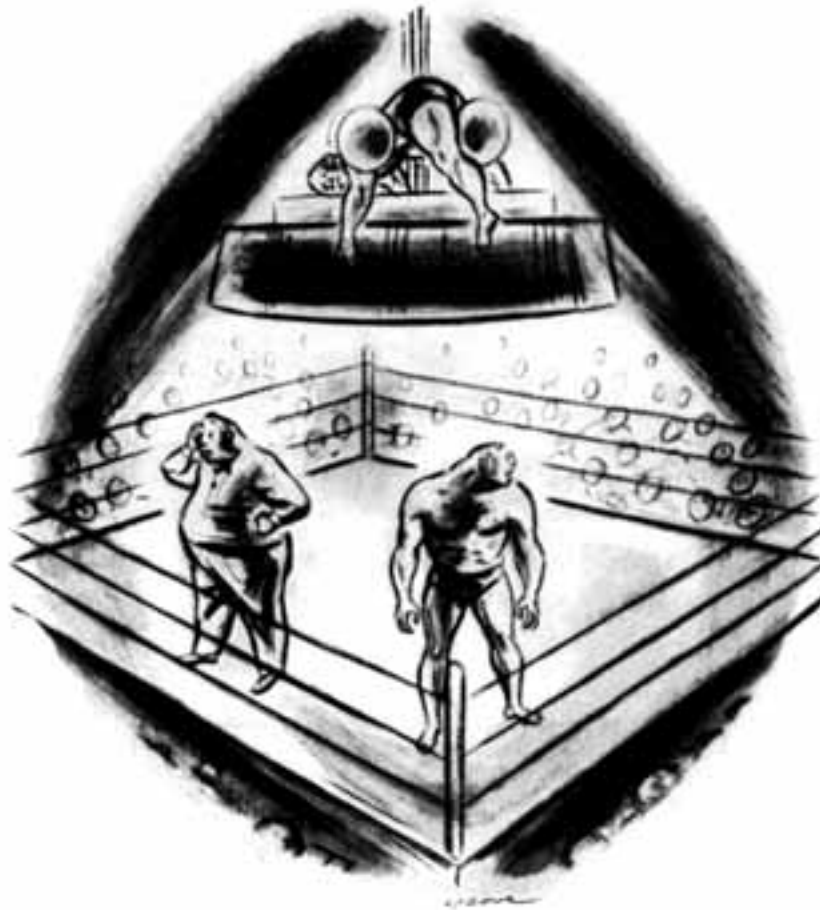

SNOW TRAIN (5 OF 5)

“Any of you gentlemen a tenor?”

"You see a prosaic line on a chart; I see a beautiful woman, with fragrant lips and eyes like deep pools."

"Now I suppose you think she can't sit down."

"I'm afraid you've missed again, Jessup."

"John L. Sullivan has always been his god, you know."

“If I told you a dream I had about you, Mr. Price, would you promise not to do anything about it unless you really want to?”

“No, no, Eddie, that won’t do! You got to write down to these people.”

“You aren’t going to need this Yale crew sweater again, are you, Osgood?”

"It's a terrible poison for cockroaches, Ma'am. I even shouldn't be usin' it myself."

“The critics said it had a take-a-letter attitude.”

THE RENASCENCE OF RUGGED INDIVIDUALISM

The Member of the Audience Who Didn't Wait for the Applause Cue at a Coast-to-Coast Broadcast

"Henry wants me to take a trip around the world, but I'd rather go somewhere else."

“Now this is what we call a crackup.”

“But if he’s really Siamese, where’s the other one?”

"I'm afraid we won't be able to replace the diaphragm. You see, that model has been discontinued."

“When you feel mysterious you can just put the veil down.”

"I'm very sorry, Madam, but the one in the middle is stuffed, poor fellow."

“Good grief, Henry, what’s got into this seismograph?”

“Please tell Mrs. Anderson to cast on forty Germantown. Then join French Zephyr. First two rows, knit one, purl one, with Germantown; Second two, knit one, purl one, with Zephyr. Then repeat. I’m sure she’ll have no trouble.”

A CARAVAN OF CALIFORNIA MILLIONAIRES, FLEEING
EASTWARD FROM THE STATE INCOME TAX, ENCAMP
FOR THE NIGHT IN HOSTILE WISCONSIN TERRITORY

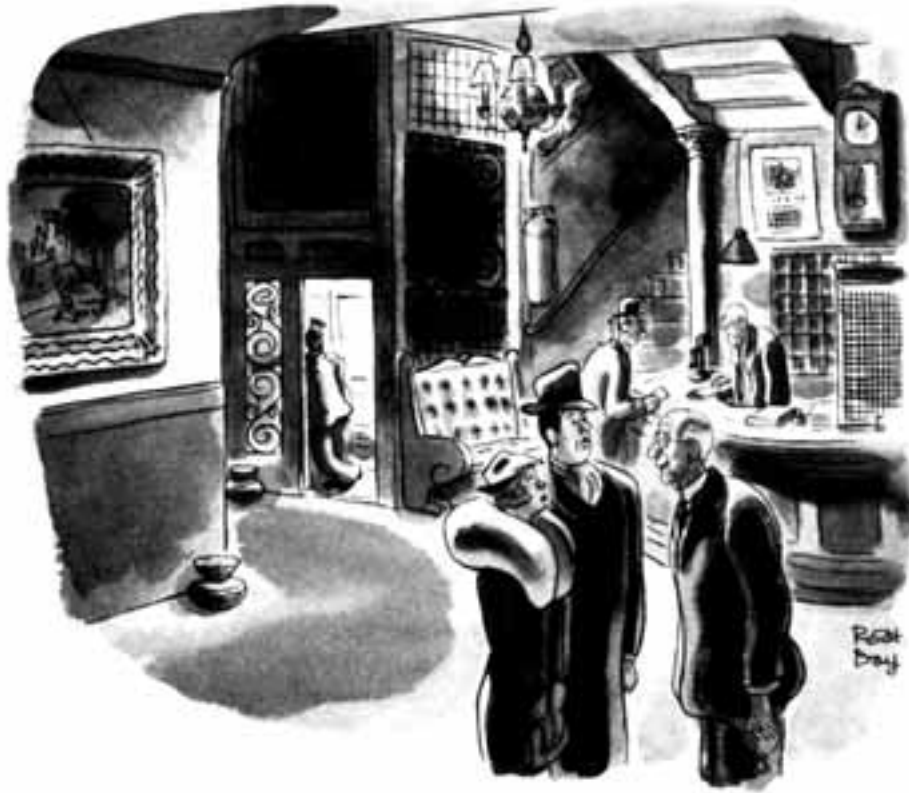

HOLY WEDLOCK
New Chapeau

"I see riches depreciating, love growing stale, and a small blurred object that looks like an ulcerated tooth."

"She wants us to get rid of the gurgle."

"I'm sure you'd like it here. Some of our tenants have been with us for forty years."

“He charges $2,500 for a portrait—no extra charge for a child under seven.”

“Dear Diary . . .”

"We never had any complaints, sir."

"Is your customer coming or going, Miss Katz?"

"Honey, the Department of Anthropology of the American Museum of Natural History wishes to observe our love habits."

"He has a lot of beautiful ideas, but none of them seem to have borne fruit."

“Couldn’t we have a pose with a little more character in it, Mr. Humbolt?”

"Tell us about the clergyman in Winsted with six toes."

“Something just went woo-oo-oo!”

"I'm really only going in to phone."

PLANETARIUM (I OF 5)

"Can they make it rain?"

PLANETARIUM (2 OF 5)

“Here we are in Central Park, awaiting the coming of dawn.”

PLANETARIUM (3 OF 5)

"We shall stop the sun as Joshua did, only much quicker."

PLANETARIUM (4 OF 5)

PLANETARIUM (5 OF 5)

Solar System

"And this is Tom Weatherby, an old beau of your mother's. He never got to first base."

"They're tied up some way with the coming revolution."

*“Here’s a natural, Manny! ‘I Hope the Postman Always Rings Twice,
If He Brings Me a Letter from You.’”*

"We had him just in time for the income-tax returns."

Jack Markow (3/14/1936)

"Picture of yourselves in action, gentlemen!"

"We've given up our Paris office. Madame thought she was spreading herself too thin."

"O point six three alcohol concentration in the blood stream. In other words, stinko."

"Won't you please give the first prize to Mrs. Gleason? She's going to have a baby."

"Now this next telegram, Mr. Forsythe: 'Wiggy misses his Sweet Pie and hopes she isn't mad at him any more.' That, this committee takes it, is code?"

"Are you listening to me, or aren't you?"

"Careful, Mrs. Doherty, he may be playing possum."

“Psst! Brother Sebastian has done his room over again.”

"You'll have to excuse me. I'm all thumbs today."

*“You mean to tell me, Mr. Katzenstein—Mr.
Arthur L. Katzenstein—ain’t on board?”*

HOLY WEDLOCK
Indefatigable Wife

"I can't remember whether Gilbert Gabriel said I'd be gripped or gypped."

"I'll be back tomorrow night, honey."

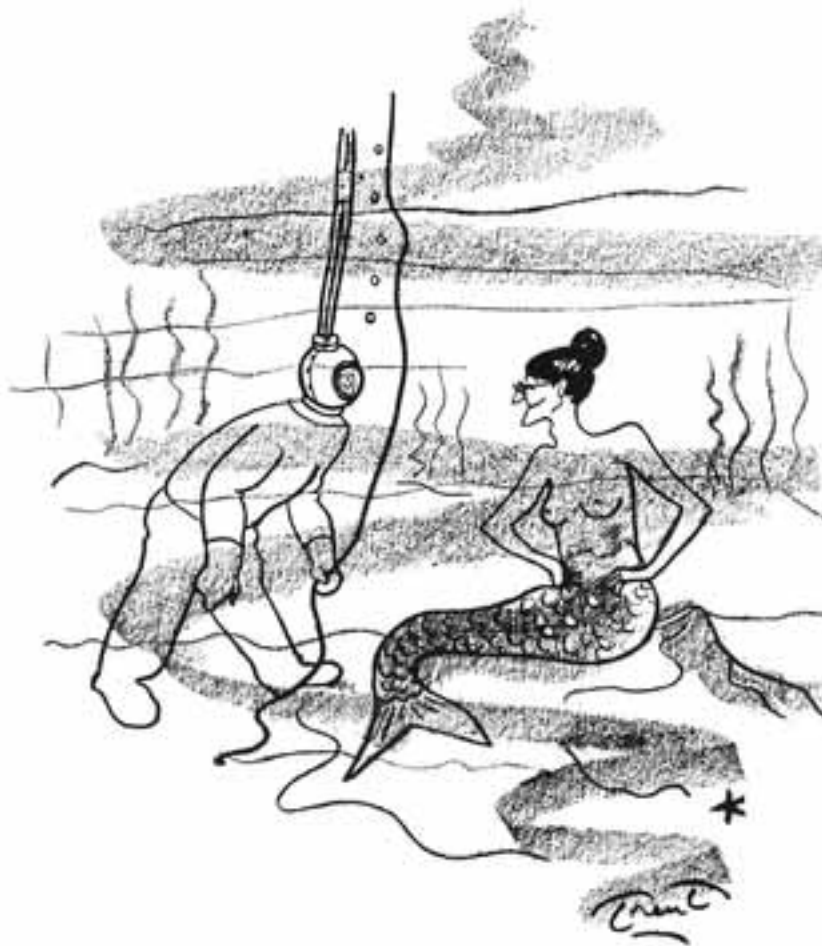

"Of course he only does it as a hobby."

"She wants it in little ringlets off the brow."

“There’s something about it gets the old man every time.”

“Well, young man?”

"Ladies, I ought to warn you about Mrs. Strawbridge. She's a wolf in sheep's clothing."

*“Sing! Sing as you have never sung before!
A Kraft Cheese talent scout is out front tonight.”*

“And if Roosevelt is not reëlected, perhaps even a villa in Newport, my dearest sweet.”

"Have to take the bad along with the good, you know, Mr. Goslar."

CLUB LIFE IN AMERICA
The Choral Society Polishes Up for the Spring Recital

“Will you dial the number again, please?”

THE BARBER SHOP (1 OF 6)

The Heavy Hand

THE BARBER SHOP (2 OF 6)

Fait Accompli

THE BARBER SHOP (3 OF 6)

Rascal

THE BARBER SHOP (4 OF 6)

Strong Sales Resistance

THE BARBER SHOP (5 OF 6)

Big Tipper

THE BARBER SHOP (6 OF 6)

*“Mr. Average American,
Dear Sir: . . .”*

“Chun Far Chow Mein with almonds, water chestnuts, and bamboo shoots—for two.”

“Look, Mr. Cohen! A Goldfarb & Finkelstein spy!”

“Do you mind if we take these? Borrowing books is our hobby.”

"Well, I think we've got it licked now."

"They may come up for Macy's, but I bet they wouldn't come up for me."

"You should see me downtown. They call me the Scourge of Wall Street."

"I think y'either click with somebody when y'first meet 'em, or not at all."

“By God, Conklin, all winter long I’ve been dinning it into you—New York, no tent! New York, no tent! New York, no tent!”

HOLY WEDLOCK
11:30 P. M.

William Steig (4/4/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Her husband has been delirious for days. He keeps calling for a Mrs. Hatfield.”

“Or in the language of the layman, Mr. Hyde, you’re hungry. What you need is something to eat.”

“Come on, get hot!”

"Remember what I told you about understatement? Poppa, I was serious!"

"Have you anything in carrots and peas?"

"He says all he needs is a sponsor."

*"I want you to know Mr. Thrawn, Mr. Simms.
Mr. Thrawn claims to be a werewolf."*

“I understand there’s a little comedy relief in the second act.”

"If you men can't do the work the way we want it done, by God, we'll get men who can."

"I don't know—somehow it isn't just the way I had always pictured it."

*"There she goes again, appealing to the emotions
instead of the intellect."*

"Might I ask what protection your wife has case you should—er—drop out of the picture?"

DRESS BARGAINS ON UNION SQUARE (I OF 4)

DRESS BARGAINS ON UNION SQUARE (2 OF 4)

DRESS BARGAINS ON UNION SQUARE (3 OF 4)

"I beg your pardon, but were you looking at that?"

DRESS BARGAINS ON UNION SQUARE (4 OF 4)

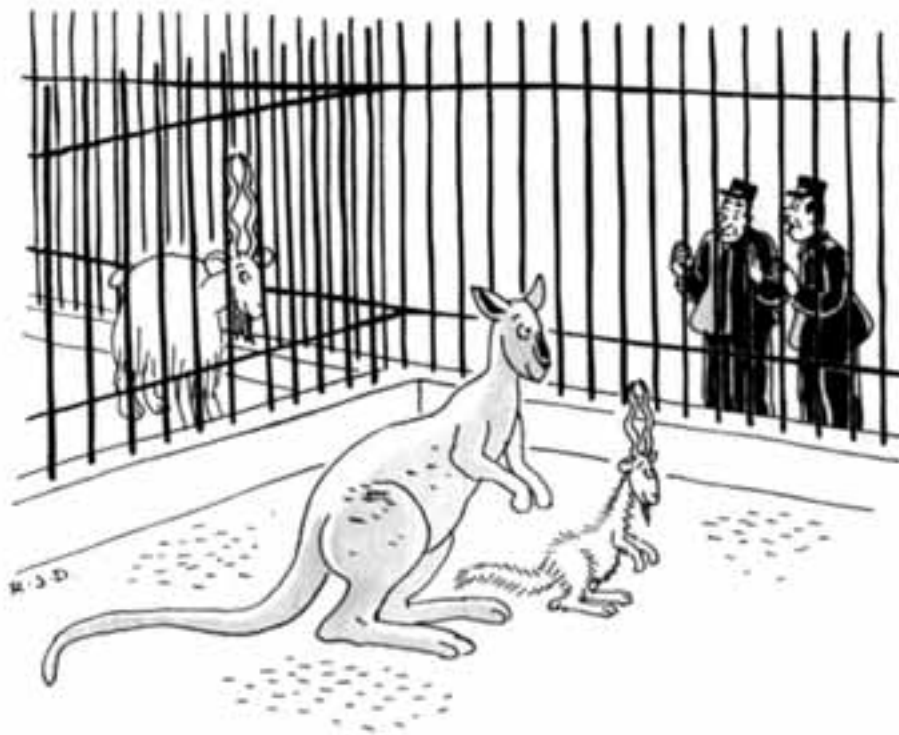

"I'll bet it's a Mainbocher even if it is dirty."

“My Gawd, Edie—Eskimos! Do you remember a coupla Eskimos with last year’s circus?”

“Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you—happy birthday, Madame President, happy birthday to you!”

"Maybe we'd better leave town till this blows over."

"And may God watch over you and keep you until next Monday night at seven, when the Mandelbaum Furniture Company will be with you again."

"We'd love to have you associated with us, but you can see how it is."

“Why, Mrs. Sedgewick! I had a feeling I’d see somebody in New York today.”

Please shave it off, Ronnie—and we'll start life all over again.

“My God—it tickles your nose! Is that all you have to say about a Veuve Clicquot '21?”

“Old Strawbridge gets to doing that every spring.”

"That ogle, Mr. Bentinck—is that natural?"

“No, I’m sure your brother doesn’t work here. There’s just Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby, me, and the dog.”

“Careful, dear! Don’t get too close.”

“Jackson has been with us so long he’s just like one of the family.”

HOLY WEDLOCK
Featherbrain Wife

William Steig (4/18/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Lent is over, gents. How about something colorful?"

"Our ceiling's a bit low here."

"Make mine a shrimp bisque and a slice of Lady Baltimore."

"Could I see how it looks by candlelight?"

"Now here is something really unique."

“Her maid told ours that she has a heart tattooed on her hip.”

“Hey!”

"When you come right down to it, though, in what way is this any different from Kew Gardens?"

“Do you serve meals here, or is this just a shrine?”

“We want every man, woman, and child in New York City to own a piece of Long Island this summer.”

“What’ll you have, Mater?”

"Myrna! Who is this man"

“Please, Merlin! Please give me the baton!”

"We better not bawl them out. They've been wanting to get that off their chest ever since they got out of fire school."

"Do you know any place around here where I can get my car greased?"

"It's the kind of hat you can just put on and forget."

*"You'll tell me if your wish comes true,
Mr. Jamieson, won't you?"*

"It's for you, Dudley—the Pulitzer Award Committee."

“Now, Stewart, you know the doctor told you that you shouldn’t talk about Roosevelt.”

“He promised us both a free suit if we drew them that way.”

“You must realize, Your Honor, that my client is laboring under a great mental strain.”

“You can’t trust them, though. They spread.”

“Dear World’s Healthiest Girl . . .”

"It's the I.R.T.'s challenge to the Municipal Subway."

THE DRUG STORE (1 OF 6)

Nietzsche, Complete Works

THE DRUG STORE (2 OF 6)

Pharmaceutical Discourse

THE DRUG STORE (3 OF 6)

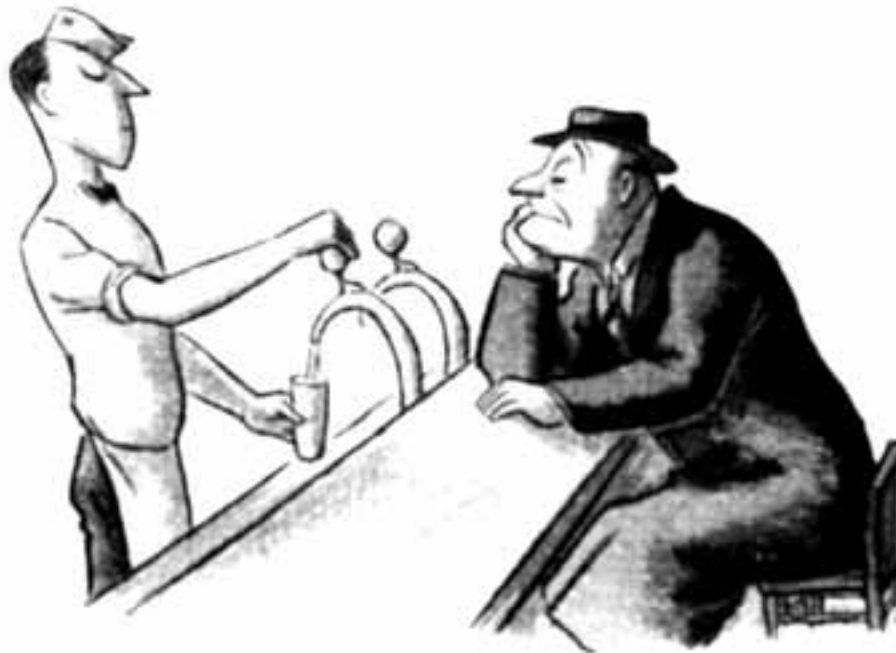

Preoccupied Soda Clerk

THE DRUG STORE (4 OF 6)

Operation

THE DRUG STORE (5 OF 6)

Bromo-Seltzer

THE DRUG STORE (6 OF 6)

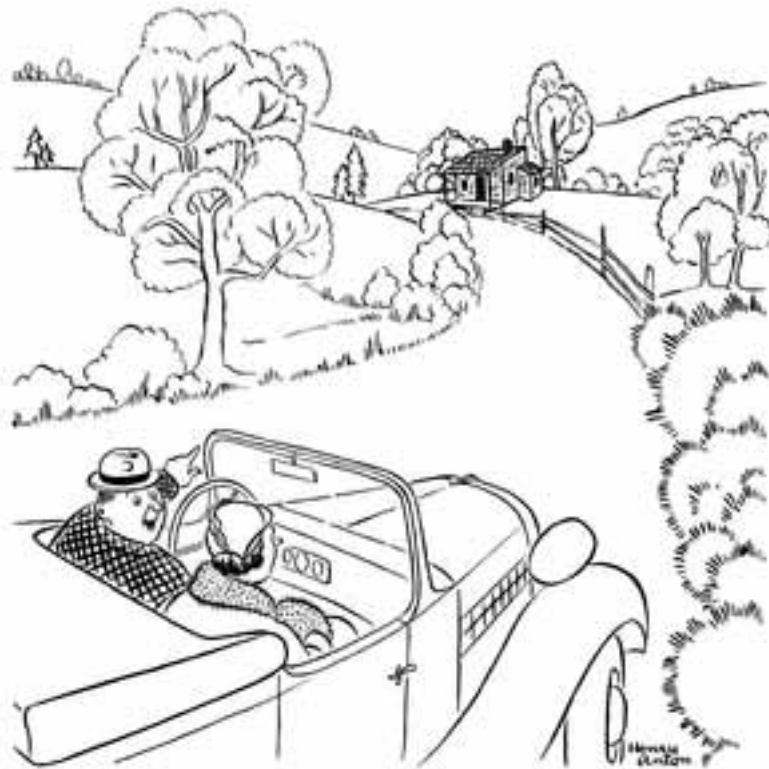

Confidential

"Of course, you must take into consideration that the apartment is occupied at present."

"Is everything satisfactory?"

“See, darling? I told you not to worry. It’s still there.”

"We're devoting the month of May to making friends for our cream-of-spinach soup."

"This is the strangest coincidence I've ever seen."

“He says what they wanted was a new postmaster.”

“Now just sit down and tell me what seems to be the trouble.”

"Surely that can't be Mrs. Hazelton's little boy!"

Now can I have my fraternity pin back?

"Well, I've found Miss Gish for you, Mr. Freeman. No relation to the sisters, incidentally."

THE TROUBLED ETHER (I OF 6)

“... and now, Mrs. Booth, perhaps you’ll tell us how you cured your husband of snoring?”

THE TROUBLED ETHER (2 OF 6)

“If you want to be someone’s dream girl, be alluring.”

THE TROUBLED ETHER (3 OF 6)

"It may be the funniest hour on the air, but the sponsors find it hard to laugh at anything that costs them several hundred dollars a minute."

THE TROUBLED ETHER (4 OF 6)

Buck Rogers' aids make a noise like the twenty-fifth century.

THE TROUBLED ETHER (5 OF 6)

"I know that thousands of you are suffering from trouble with your loved ones."

THE TROUBLED ETHER (6 OF 6)

“Uncle Don is sorry to hear you don’t eat your vegetables, Billy, but anyway there’s a surprise for you behind the radio.”

"There! That's one thing out of the way."

"Check your oil and water, sir?"

HOLY WEDLOCK
Expectant Mother

Leonard Dove (5/9/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Pour a little cold water over his wrists."

“Excuse me, but do you think this would hold its own against a Chippendale sofa?”

"I've had a few nibbles from the Government."

"Pretty sure of yourself, aren't you, Denton?"

"They had it rebuilt after the fire, and now it's as good as new."

“Little things mean a lot to a girl, Mr. Goldsmith—like your coming to see me this way when you’re cold sober.”

"Oh, I just had a hunch, somehow."

“He’s conquered science, see? And he wants to know why he can’t conquer love.”

"I'm dying to buy one but you mustn't let me."

“Coked to the gills, Beardon lunged toward the supine figure on the red plush couch.”

“Good Lord, it’s been going all winter!”

"Both you gentlemen for the Stamp Club?"

“He’s giving Dorothy Thompson a piece of his mind.”

"I just made that one up."

“There! That’s the kind of permanent I was telling you about.”

“Nigeria or Youngstown—no matter where—Salzman is always ahead of me.”

*"I say I hate the city, Mr. Gromer! I love everything in the fields!
Everything that's growing! Everything that's wild!"*

"Let's take off our shoes and stockings."

STRANGE EVENTS OF AN ELECTION YEAR

Governor Talmadge of Georgia Musters the Democrats of the Old South, Suh, for a March on Washington to Save the Constitution

"Now how do you suppose that ever slipped by the International Ice Patrol?"

"We're only willing to sell because my husband has been transferred to Chicago."

*“Frayruh Shacka, frayruh Shacka, Dormay voo, dormay voo,
Sunnay lay mahtinah,
Sunnay lay mahtinah,
Dang, dang, dong.”*

“Rubbish! Lots of children are unwanted. Your father and I didn’t want you.”

"Mine!"

“He’s Continental as hell. He can spin one vermouth cassis out for three hours.”

“You mustn’t think of it in New York, Mrs. Brewster. Think of it in Lenox.”

"Rhodes scholar, no doubt."

"Calling all cars! Calling all cars!"

"Anyway, it keeps them off the streets."

“Er—this is Senator McNutney. He’s handling our whispering campaign.”

"We're never going to get anywhere against those Catskill boys."

“Mr. Mitchell is out too, but you can speak to our ha, ha, ha, Mr. ha, ha, ha, Copeland.”

“Sorry, sir. We’ve decided it’s a lost art.”

"I'll get it for you, honey, if I have to buy it retail."

HOLY WEDLOCK
Adoration

William Steig (5/30/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Of course we gave the architect a lot of his ideas.”

"Jeez, has he got class!"

"I wonder what became of that other lampshade. It was here just a minute ago."

Richard Decker (5/30/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Now it must have complete rest.”

"I think it's wonderful how your lemon meringue always turns out so well."

"Damn it! You can't all sit next to Roosevelt."

“Cooper, please! Don't step on the cracks!”

STRANGE EVENTS OF AN ELECTION YEAR
G-men Trap a Counterfeit Ring in the Act of Stuffing a Mailbox with Fraudulent "Literary Digest" Ballots

"His painting is no problem to him. It's picking the right frame that wears him down."

"You never can tell. One day they're ideally happy together—the next she's going to open up a little dress shop."

"You will be glad to know, my sweet, that I have given orders that in case of fire you are the first to be saved."

"They must expect him to bunt."

"I'm sick of it. You never want to go any place any more."

“Now just wait and see how these little curls will add to the gaiety of nations, Mrs. Balcom.”

"That's a direct steal from 'Woman Betrayed.'"

"He likes to think of himself as brittle."

"Damn it, I said julep!"

“Do you mean how do I like it, Nate, or how do I think the average person will like it?”

“Something old, something new, something borrowed, something . . . For God’s sake, somebody get me something blue!”

“Those will bring Schmeling and Louis right into your lap, Miss—figuratively speaking, of course.”

HOLY WEDLOCK
Joint Bank Account

"Hello, Mamma—I'm in Yonkers."

"Checking out, Miss Grafton?"

"This is your big day, my son—a day you'll always remember."

"The cars go in plain and come out fancy. That's all any of us know."

“Climb that mountain, men, while I make a phone call.”

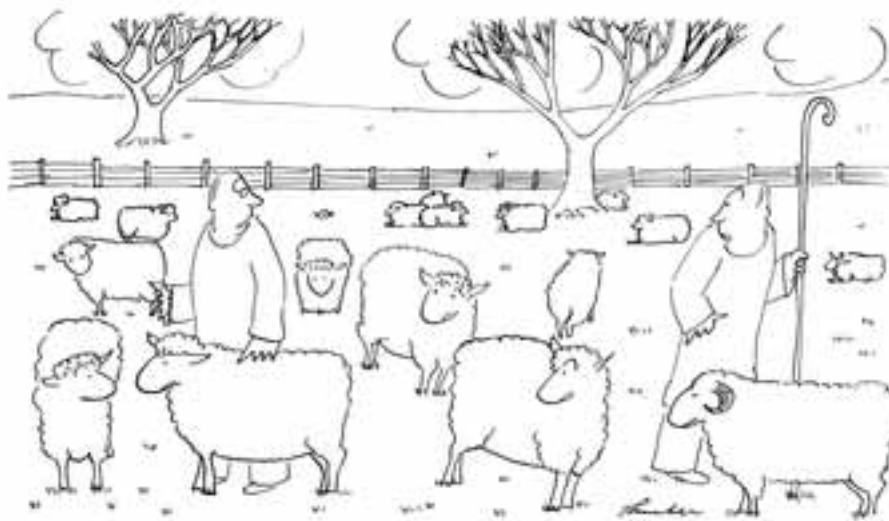

"There's a certain honesty about them I like."

“Sanderson? You’ll find him down on the Georgia coast.”

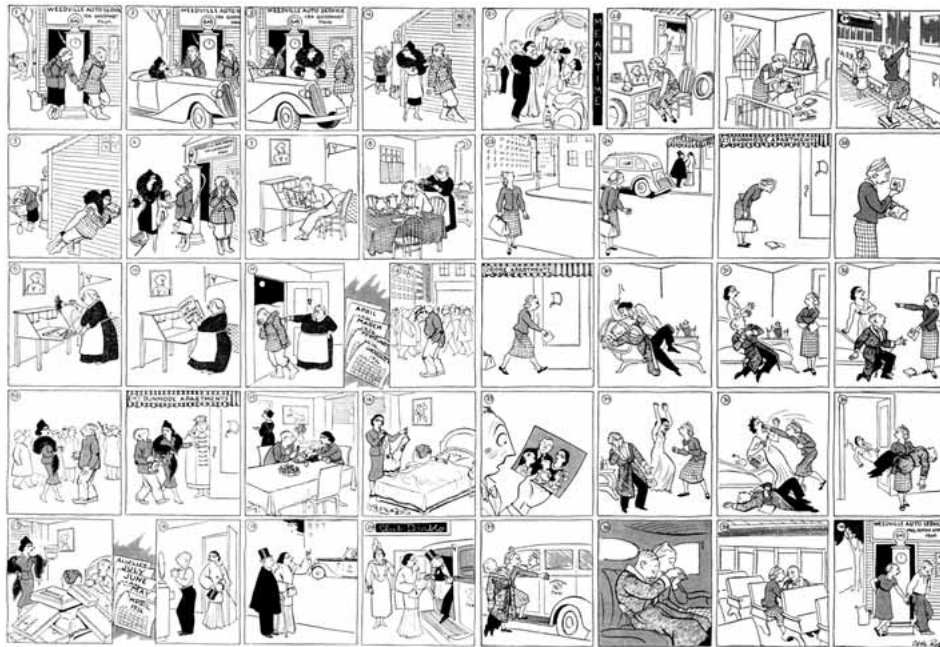

"Would you step over here a second, Waldo? This one's bearing cotton."

"Get out and mingle with the other schizophrenes."

"Sometimes, Agatha, I wish to God you hadn't learned to smile at misfortune!"

LEAP YEAR LOVE: A DRAMA OF SIN AND REDEMPTION

"Here's a guy says he wants another bonus."

“Open Sesame!”

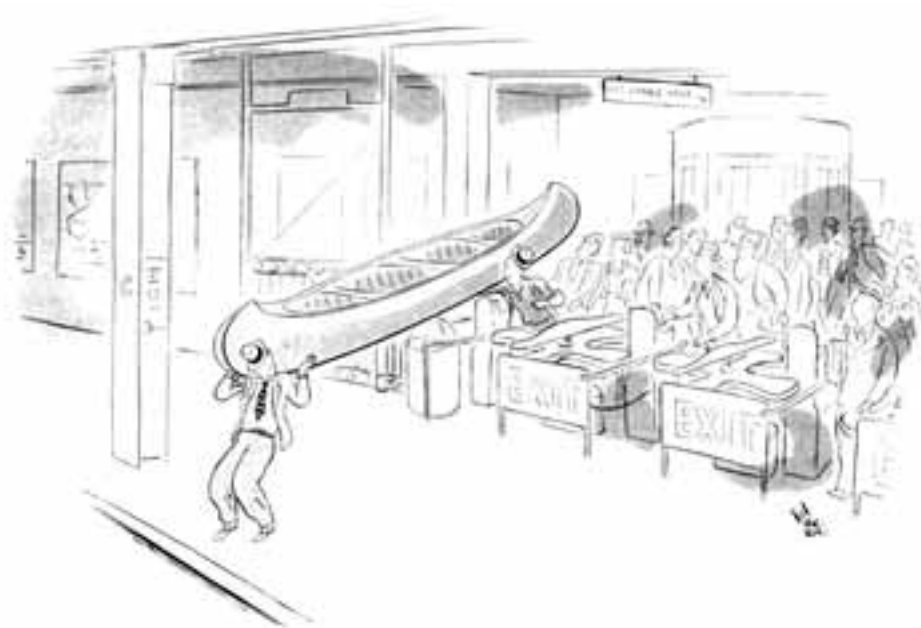

"Then I wrote him an awfully nasty letter, but, you know, cute."

"We moved it stone by stone from Madison Avenue."

“Er—Willard. This is the negligee I bought the other day when I was depressed.”

"Hey, Ellsworth, got a nickel?"

“How does Camp Gitche Gumee on Lake Wahwahgunticook sound to you, Junior?”

"This, I take it, is the wind-blown?"

"Let me take your hat, Mr. Williams."

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (1 OF 7)

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (2 OF 7)

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (3 OF 7)

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (4 OF 7)

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (5 OF 7)

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (6 OF 7)

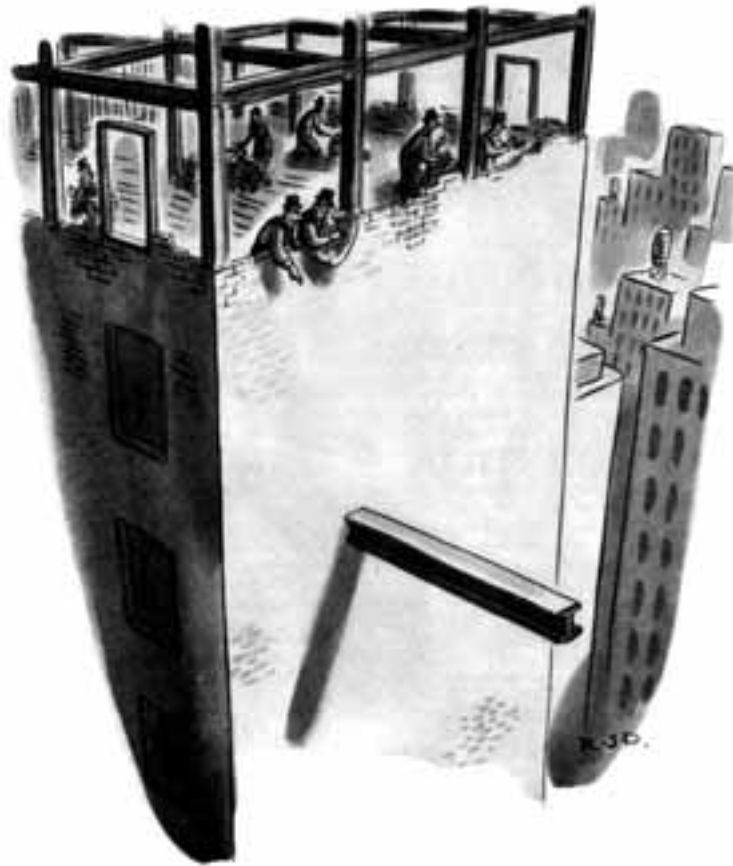

DELEGATES
INSTRUCTED AND UNINSTRUCTED (7 OF 7)

"I haven't heard any first-rate oratory yit."

“For the fourth time, I repeat—will the witness stop using her feminine intuition and give us the facts!”

“Something must be wrong here.”

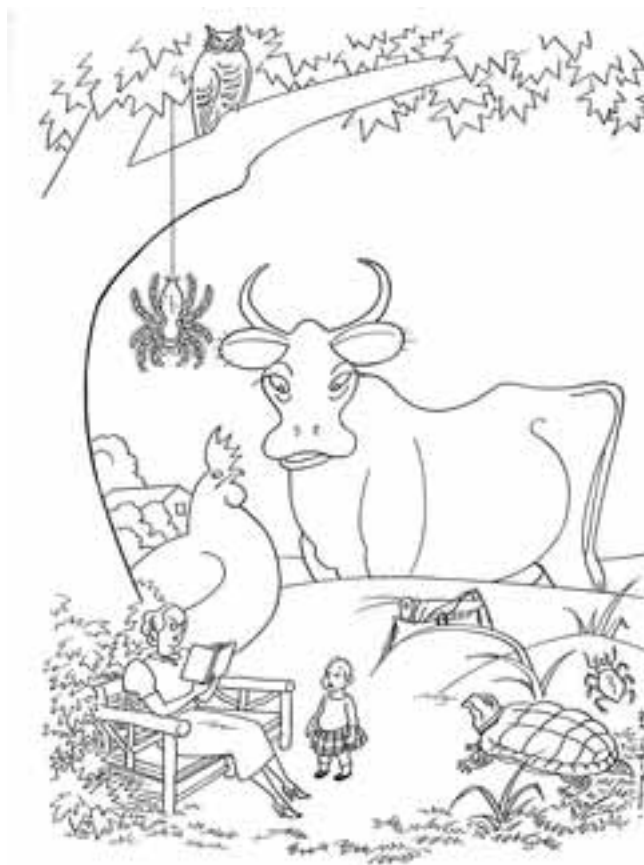

"Some day I'm going to a five-dollar medium."

"I told him he could get whatever he wanted. What the hell? A man only gets a bonus once in his life."

"Now if we can get two more girls to chip in, we can take a taxi every morning."

"Run along now, Pierpont, and play."

“One-two . . . three-four . . . five-six . . . uh-eight . . . nine-woof . . .”

“Well, tomorrow’s our first anniversary. How about having some of the gang in to buck us up?”

“Of course, we shall require satisfactory business and social references.”

"Let's see—now we'll start to eliminate."

"This bag here has a cleverly concealed false bottom. Why, I don't know."

“That’s what I first liked about her—the way she hit out at life.”

“Frankly, Mr. Digby, we had pictured you as a somewhat younger man.”

HOLY WEDLOCK
Devoted Slave

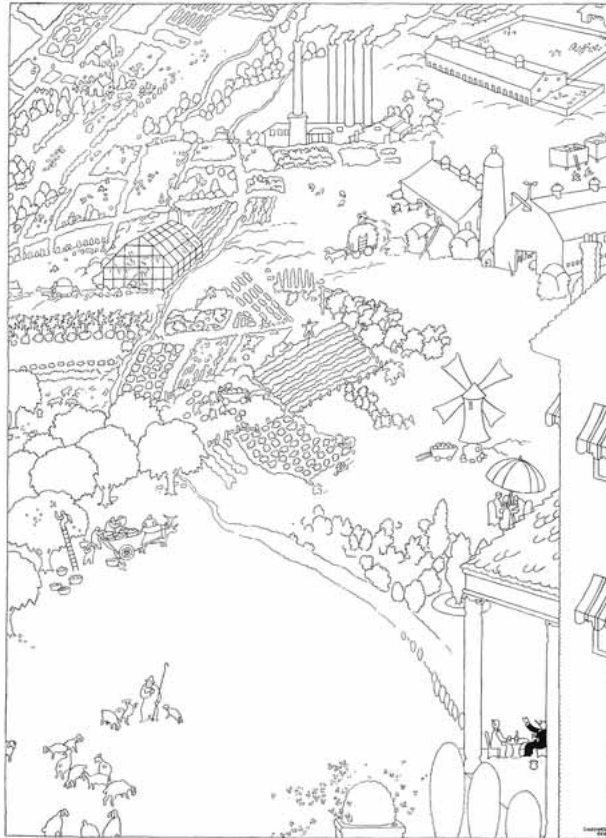

William Steig (7/4/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

Leonard Dove (7/4/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“The manor is entirely self-sustaining—except for White Rock.”

"The only authority I can find is a contemporary named Sol Bloom."

"We just missed him. It's still warm."

"Where to, Chief?"

"I have a treat for you today, Attilio. Here is virgin soil."

"I've been having the most terrible dreams lately."

"I suppose that's why we got such good odds on him."

"Would you mind putting that request in the form of a memorandum, boys?"

"In-tro-duc-ing—last year's winnah!"

“It’s good modernism, Mr. Phllippi, but how are you going to get your people in it?”

"Why of course you came out of a hat. You all came out of a hat."

“Pearson, you’re the sorriest-looking sight I’ve seen in my entire career!”

“Approach, women of Athens!”

“For instance, Grandma, you could swing that knitting. Take a familiar pattern and give it everything.”

“You ought to be very proud of me, Miss Timson. I guessed the solution before Mr. Fortune did.”

"Oh, Good Humors!"

"Here's a slightly imperfect one you can have at cost. Number twenty-four always comes up."

“After that she made her move. She presented him with a child.”

“Oh dear, and just as I was getting to understand French!”

"Cutlets boining on the fourth floor."

*The Board of Directors of the Pullman Company
Witnesses a Demonstration Proving that a Man Can Put On a Pair of Pants in an Upper Berth*

Return to Main Menu ►

"The Company is using us to test whether a chain of stores is as strong as its weakest link."

HOLY WEDLOCK
Threatening Paunch

“After telling me how to pronounce ‘au gratin,’ he leaves a lousy five-cent tip.”

“We rented the trailer out to another couple. They don’t seem to mind where we go.”

Alan Dunn (7/18/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Of course, on Madame it will take definite form and shape.”

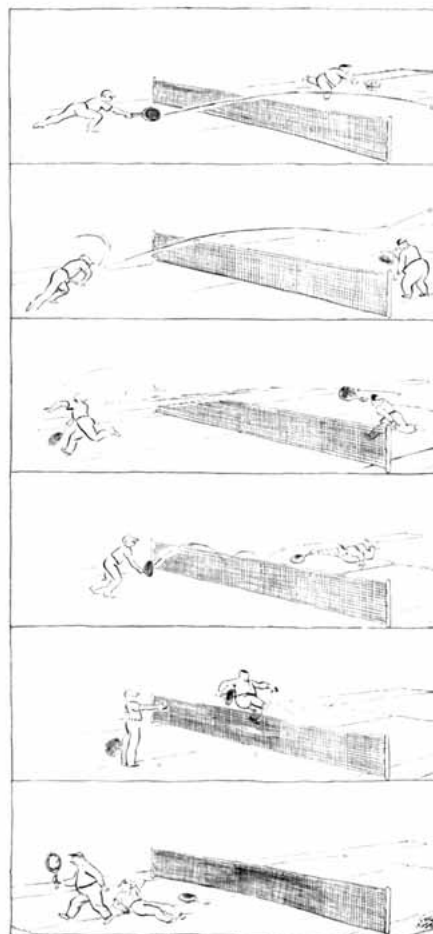

"I ought to warn you first. It's a novel you can't gulp."

“And the Swami says if everyone only breathed properly, we wouldn’t have all these wars.”

"Is there supposed to be a mouse in here?"

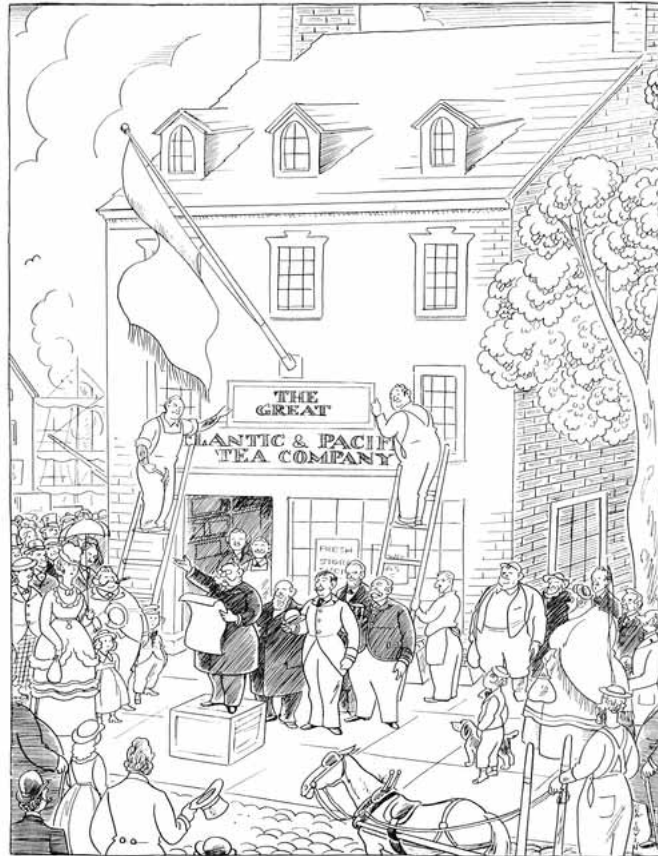

“ . . . Hello, Edmund. Hello, Warwick. Hello, Teddy. Hello, Poodgie. Hello, Kip. Hello, Freddie . . . ”

“Trust Arthur to lose his head in an emergency.”

"Are you sure you turned off the electric shuffler on the bridge table?"

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN THE ANNALS OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY
The Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company Formally Adds “Great” to Its Name

Rea Irvin (7/25/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Well, you know how women are.”

“Be sure to get back in time for dinner.”

Leonard Dove (7/25/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"I warned you that you'd need sport clothes in England."

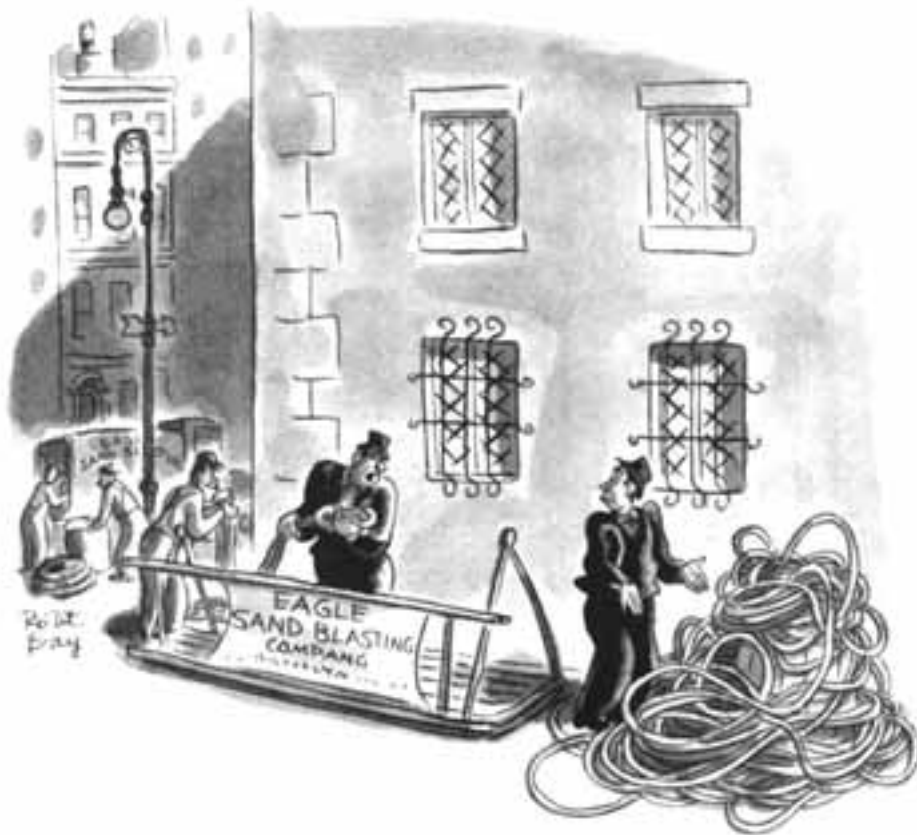

"It's just a decoy."

"She met him through her dog."

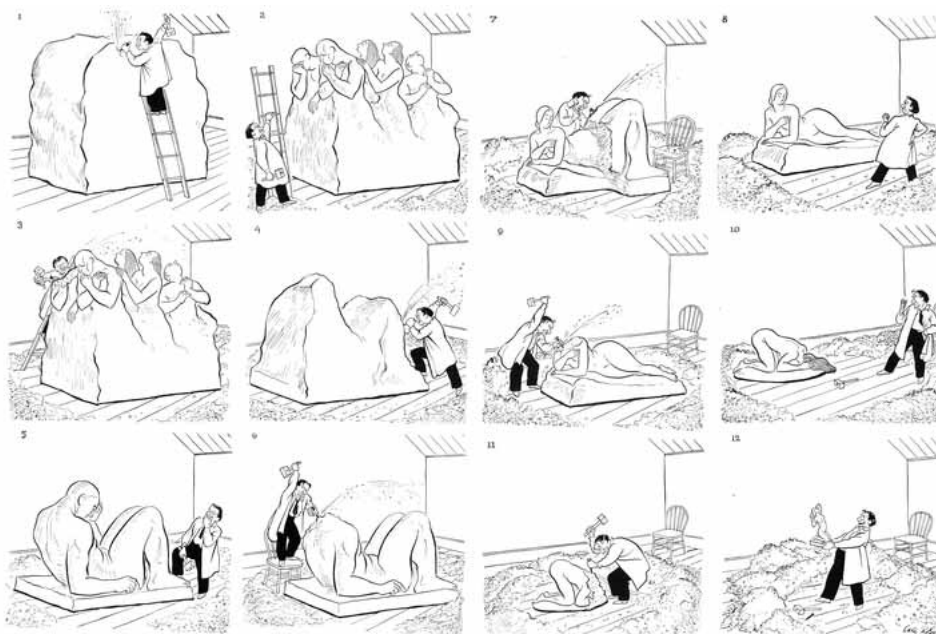

"Bad news?"

"Well, look again! Surely it must have an end."

"If my wife's on that boat, just pretend you don't know me."

THE PERFECTIONIST

“When you hear the signal, the time will be exactly eight-fifteen and three-quarters. So what?”

“Let’s put our heads together, Effie, and see what we can do with Mr. Ballard’s little fish.”

"Sh-h-h-h!"

“Now in this dream you’re always having of being chased by a plumed alligator and Ronald Colman, which one is usually in the lead?”

“Don’t just stand there—get witnesses!”

"Trevor, you must stop going around corners on eight wheels!"

“Stout fella, Jan. He still has his finger in the dike.”

"I've taken Warwick Deeping with me every summer since 1929."

"I could kick myself for not stopping when I had it."

“Our house boy talked Herbert into raising our own rice.”

“Of course it’s none of my business, but where are we going?”

"Please, Miss Ferguson. We're still a pretty sick little girl."

“Pombo learn things fast, eh, doctor?”

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN THE ANNALS OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY
*The Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank Welcomes
Its First Native-Born Depositor*

"Listen, stupid, we sent you down for sponges!"

"I think you should know, my dears, that your father sailed on a Vagabond Cruise two years ago and hasn't been back since."

"My compliments to the chef."

"Madam, these termites have been planted!"

"Brantingham looks practically unbeatable this afternoon."

“Remember, every fellow makes his own bed, Smith—the Law of the Wild, you know.”

“If you’ll come and see us in Rockport, I’ll introduce you to a very dangerous man.”

"We give him a key to the city, and he goes and has a duplicate made for a Miss Pomeroy."

“No, no, Harvey, not their faces—just the windshield!”

"On gluten, please."

"She acts quite well, for a barn, don't you think?"

"You're certainly as artistic as hell, Mr. Kendall."

SMALL FRY
CITY SUMMER (I OF 5)

SMALL FRY
CITY SUMMER (2 OF 5)

Coney

SMALL FRY
CITY SUMMER (3 OF 5)

Ices

SMALL FRY
CITY SUMMER (4 OF 5)

Record Heat

SMALL FRY
CITY SUMMER (5 OF 5)

Fire Escape

"Then, somewhere between here and Bar Harbor, Lionel lost his lustre."

"I want to tell him that my sister met his wife."

"He's that quiet you'd never know there was a baby in the house."

"They tried to tell me you weren't in, Bricky. Great little force you have here."

"We don't know what it is, but it's fresh."

"My mother felt the same way. She didn't want I should grow up."

“Well, find out the gentleman’s name and ask him what he wants.”

“... and thanks, God, for bringing Mr. Bowers back to the Ocean House.”

Leonard Dove (8/22/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"This is said to be America's most thrilling low-priced car."

"Pardon me, is this taken?"

"He joined our party in Yellowstone."

"Hey! 'T' before 'e' except after 'c.'"

“Give me the health salad—and a double brandy and soda.”

HOLY WEDLOCK
Triangle

William Steig (8/22/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN THE ANNALS OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY
An efficiency engineer discovers that printing will save Mr. Kellogg from having to sign his name on each of the Corn Flakes boxes

“Why, officer, you’re trembling like a leaf!”

"It's ridiculous, not being able to sleep just because the equator passes through the bed."

"Well, so long, Crosby. It's been nice seeing you."

"Madame President, I move we read some of our own poems for Miss Millay after she finishes."

"Listen, Max, if you buy a thousand yards, I'll let you have it for a dollar and a quarter."

“He writes dog stories.”

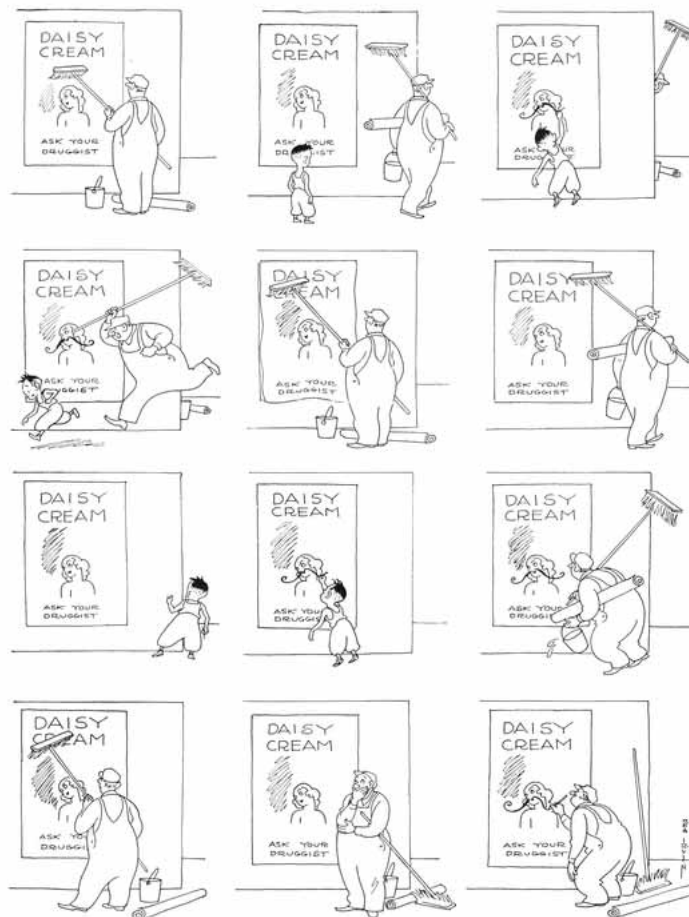

"They're getting a divorce."

“Confidentially, we want to rid the place of praying mantes.”

"The dear boy never gives me a minute's worry. He always beats the rap."

“Why, Mr. Boehm! I do believe you’ve made a conquest!”

“Just say, ‘Entertained a few members of the younger married set at bridge.’”

“Ready or not, here I come!”

"By Jove, sir, the Governor-General shall hear of this!"

GRACE AND RELAXATION FOR THE BUSINESSMAN (I OF 5)

“Perhaps you’d better send Miss Cunningham—he’s quite tall.”

GRACE AND RELAXATION FOR THE BUSINESSMAN (2 OF 5)

“And you will indicate with the shoulders the direction you wish to turn.”

GRACE AND RELAXATION FOR THE BUSINESSMAN (3 OF 5)

*“Diaphragm in,
Mr. Watkins, and forward on your toes.”*

GRACE AND RELAXATION FOR THE BUSINESSMAN (4 OF 5)

“And now, three steps and a side-step—you’re-doing-very-well-and-a-side-step.”

GRACE AND RELAXATION FOR THE BUSINESSMAN (5 OF 5)

“But Martha, I had an idea we were going to adopt a somewhat younger boy.”

"I don't know why I should have such a headache. I do a strictly cash business."

“For the last time, you and that glass slipper get the hell out of here!”

“Well, fer Gawd’s sakes—Butch! Where you been keepin’ yourself?”

"Oh, stop worrying, Ackerson! We'll cross that bridge when we come to it."

"We're friendly enemies today, aren't we, Mrs. Blockwell?"

“Is there—someone else?”

"Now we're going to keep on doing this over and over until whoever is yelling 'Whoopee' decides to coöperate."

"Now where did I put that pencil?"

"I'm a regular old gossip, aren't I?"

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN THE ANNALS OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY
The Peruna Corporation declares its first stock dividend

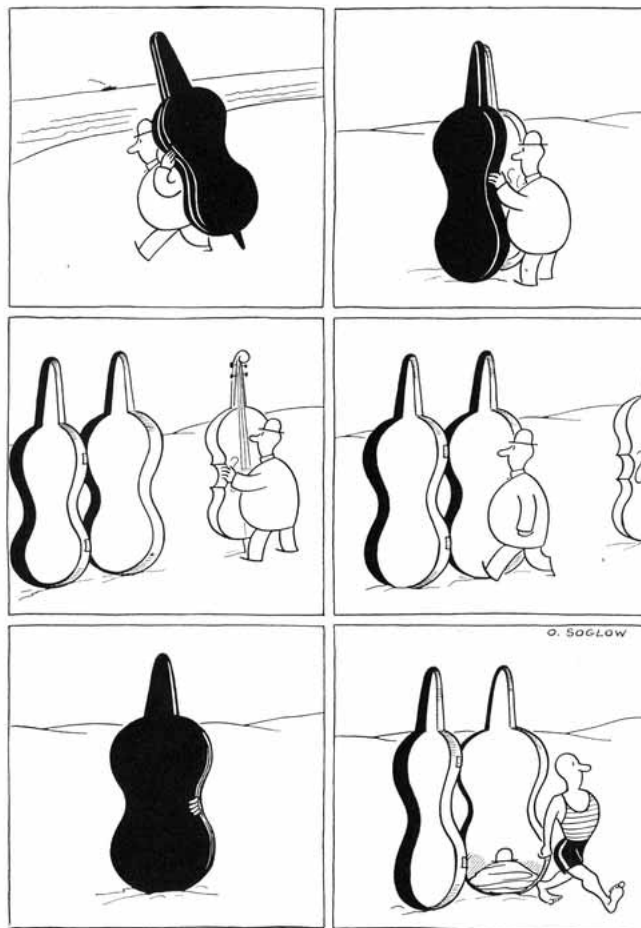

"There are six of us—no, I mean five. Mrs. Kenworthy had to stay upstairs and type the minutes while she could find a typewriter that wasn't in use."

“Don’t you worry, Mrs. McGovern—he’ll be back.”

“Are there any—cucarachas?”

"That mirage, Meyer! Look, there it is again!"

“Now this is a real Oriental.”

“It’s nothing at all, really—just an old mutilated torso.”

"I've finally decided to go to college. All you lose is four years."

"Curious effect, isn't it?"

"I suppose you girls are wondering why I asked you here tonight."

"This is William's little den."

"Here! Here! There's a place for that, sir!"

"Darling, will you keep an eye on the children for a few minutes?"

“Hello Mom! Hello Sis! Hello Mr. Gilray of the Ventura Girdles concern!”

"I have a surprise for you people today—I'm depositing."

Leonard Dove (9/12/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Not a sale all day! We should never of tried to buck the cigarette people."

"It's a very great honor, dear. We're invited to the pre-preview. That comes before the advance preview, the regular preview, the private opening, and the world première."

"Knock, knock!"

“How about enlivening it with a bird?”

“Excuse me, Mr. President, this button opens Boulder Dam—that button is Mr. McIntyre.”

"These high altitudes always affect my ears."

"Madam has—how do you say it?—a way with men."

"Come along. We're going to the Trans-Lux to hiss Roosevelt."

"I hope, dear, you won't come back from Vassar with a lot of ideas."

HOLY WEDLOCK
Misdirected Tenderness

William Steig (9/19/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN THE ANNALS OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY

The Fuller Brush Company consults a board of army experts on its new military hairbrush

“He isn’t really ours. He was left on our doorstep by some passing yacht.”

"Remember me, Senator? Back in 1916, when you were running for state representative, you kissed me."

"If you knew it had a sad ending, why didn't you tell me?"

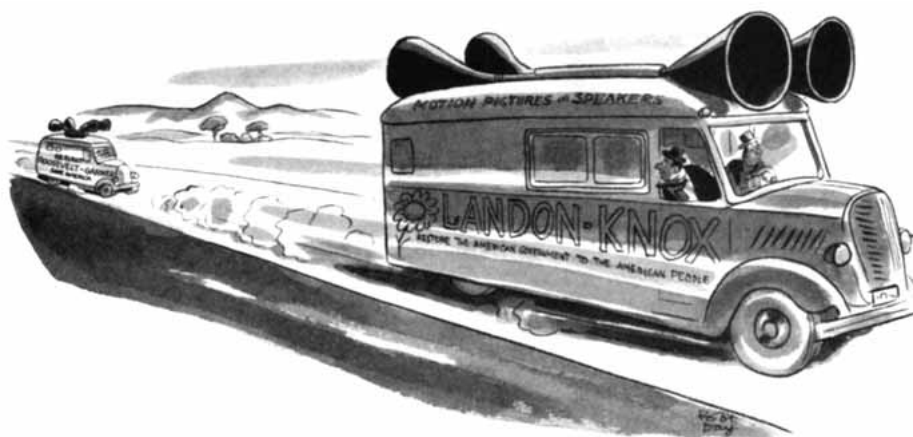

Leonard Dove (9/19/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"If it gives Madame a stomach we can take it out."

"Gad, but it feels great to be back in the harness again!"

“Mr. Sandmark, when I’m out there doing that horrid dance, try to remember that it’s not really me.”

"Just a minute, boys! We've got to do something about Clancy."

"Mrs. Purvis is just back from Spain. She says they're wearing their skirts quite short."

“Well, now comes the hard part—looking for another apartment.”

WOE (I OF 6)

Broken Heart

WOE (2 OF 6)

Creative Agony

WOE (3 OF 6)

Mal de tête

WOE (4 OF 6)

Commercial Anxiety

William Steig (9/26/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

WOE (5 OF 6)

The Blues

WOE (6 OF 6)

Rejection

"Silly woman! What have you done?"

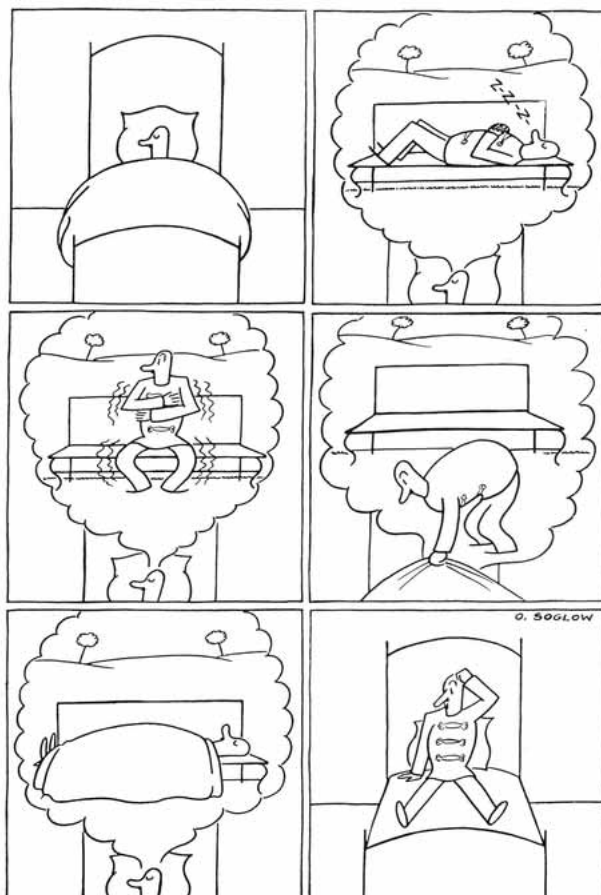

"I want an open car—something I can make speeches from."

"Congratulations, sir. You've hit the jack pot."

"You don't think it's a bit too luxurious?"

“Oh—haven’t you something with a little more restful view?”

"This is where Mim got the hat that blew in the window of the Harvard Club."

"Something's screwy somewhere. No matter how you go in, you always come out here."

"Do you mind if I join you?"

"My God, Francine, don't move! A World Championship may hinge on this!"

“That my client has been irresistible to many women, I will be the first to admit.”

"He's here every day. Some sort of a Peeping Tom."

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN THE ANNALS OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY
It is successfully demonstrated that children cry for Fletcher's Castoria

“Could you make me look like anything at all by four-thirty?”

“Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., called this morning, but he had the wrong number.”

"Father's in one of his Henry the Eighth moods again."

"Would you mind putting the Stella Pratts in a separate package from the General Pershings."

"I don't see how E. Phillips Oppenheim keeps it up. I certainly couldn't."

“Listen to old Sex Appeal there!”

"They're the defenders of the Vanderbilt Cup."

OUR MODERN GALLERY OF ANCIENT FAVORITES
Sacred and Profane Love

Richard Taylor (10/10/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“Ready or not, they say she’s never been known to miss a cue.”

"In us, Mr. Gibney, you'll find an agency that believes in sticking pretty close to tried and true methods."

“The Telephone Company wants to know if I can hear them. What shall I say?”

"Perhaps we shouldn't listen. I believe he's trying to influence our vote."

"She got him on the rebound after a long siege of dentistry."

“You remind me of someone I knew once—long, long ago.”

“Hey, not the lights—just the poles!”

“Hello, Mrs. Post? This is Mr. Simpson of London speaking. Er . . .”

"Look, Mary—magic!"

“Suppose first, just as a blind stab, we try the College Shop.”

"We just got back from Switzerland."

“You are trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, reverent.”

“Could you fellows get me a divorce?”

“Incidentally, Mr. Svenson still holds the high-jump record for women.”

“When will it ever end, Miss Hartley? When will it ever end?”

"They all look well on you, Madame."

"It's something Cousin Ethel brought back from California. We're not sure whether it's a cactus or a redwood."

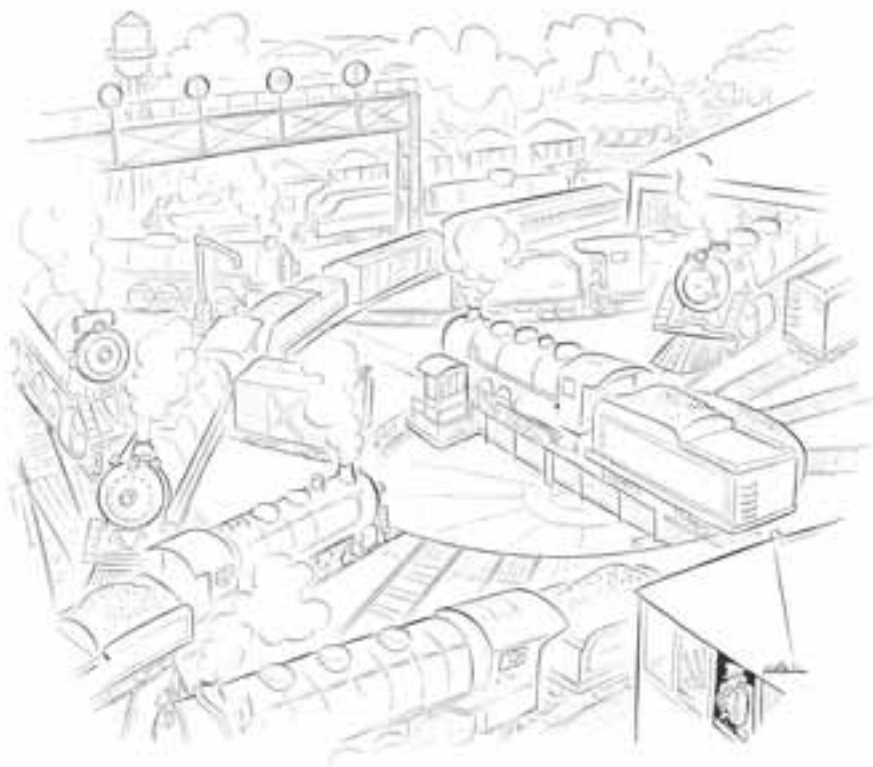

"The coach is holding him in reserve."

“Well, Mr. Mandel, as my lawyer, do you think I have enough grounds to break my lease?”

"I was tremendously moved by it. I think I broke both shoulder straps."

“Hello, Evening Journal? I’d like to speak to the Puzzle Editor.”

OUR MODERN GALLERY OF ANCIENT FAVORITES
The Finding of Moses

Richard Taylor (10/17/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Show me something mad in a mule."

"But, dear, I've got to kill Susan. The whole story depends on it."

"I located him. He's been stuck in the traffic on Thirty-fourth Street for two hours."

“Gearson is always right there on the rebuttal, isn’t he?”

The Editors of Fortune prepare an article on the life of the typical middle-class family.

"Gad, what interference!"

“Go away, Edith! You confuse me.”

"Pardon me, my name's Armbruster. Would you like a fight?"

“Ingenious, isn’t it? I sometimes wish I hadn’t forgotten the combination.”

"I do hope we won't have to learn a game this winter."

"Good morning, my feathered friends!"

"Darling, I'm simply making money hand over fist!"

"I want copies of 'Green Mansions,' 'Green Laurels,' 'Green Pastures,' 'Green Margins,' 'Green Hell,' and 'Green Light'—and don't ask me why!"

"I'm the Times man. Did they have pistol permits?"

"All right, but not over half full, please."

“Well, if we win the $750,000 prize, O.K. If not—what the hell?— we’ve had a lot of fun out of it.”

"Can you tell me which one of these levers I pull to vote against the present administration?"

“How you New Yorkers can keep this sort of thing up day in and day out, I don’t see.”

“Look behind you, Albert. Doesn’t that mean a hard winter?”

"Him? He's our radio sponsor."

“Edward J. Donnelley, 527 East 63rd Street. I want a shave.”

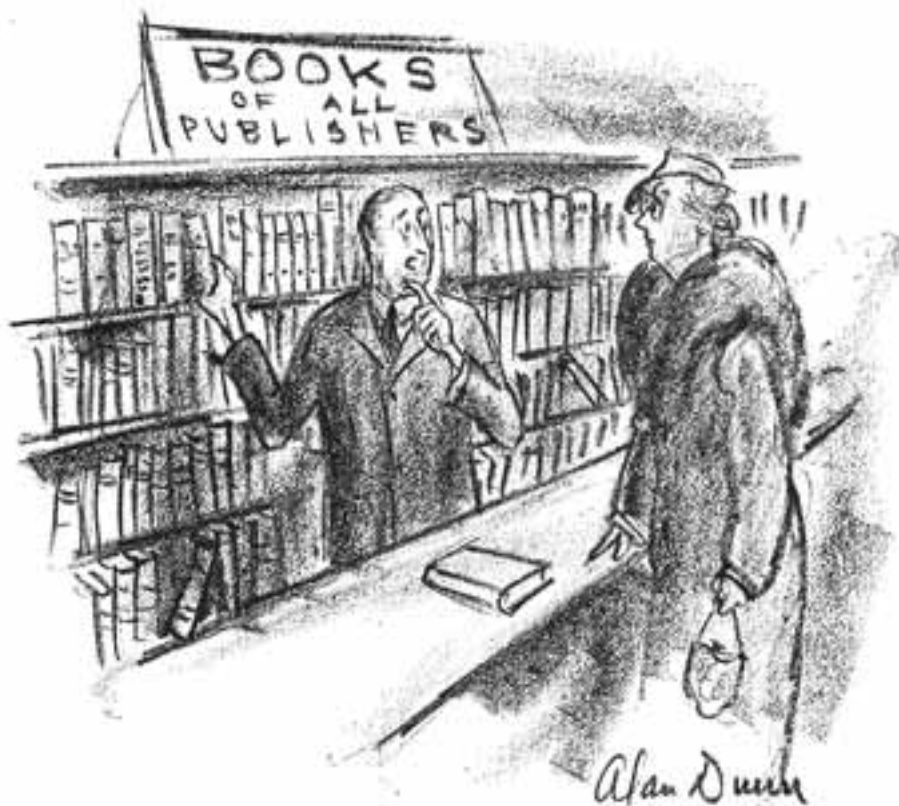

OUR MODERN GALLERY OF ANCIENT FAVORITES
Rape of the Sabines

“Er . . . I do hope you’re not writing a novel.”

"The Bible? Let me see—that's a Simon & Shuster publication, isn't it?"

“Now, I sort of lose the gist of it here.”

"This is the one that was born on the escalator at Bloomingdale's."

Perry Barlow (11/7/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Beg pardon, sir. Madam has all the men again."

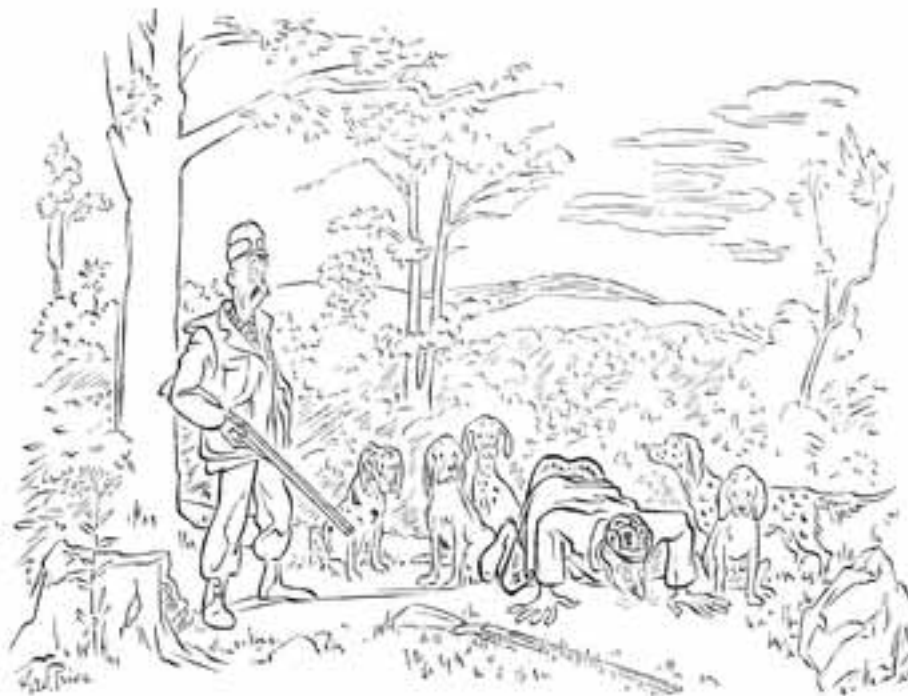

"Nice work."

“Well, I would never allow myself to become infatuated with royalty!”

"It sort of tides her over the winter months."

"I can't smell a thing either."

“What damn fool sent for us?”

"I was hungry."

“What have you that is out of season?”

"Oh, she rides, but she can't post yet."

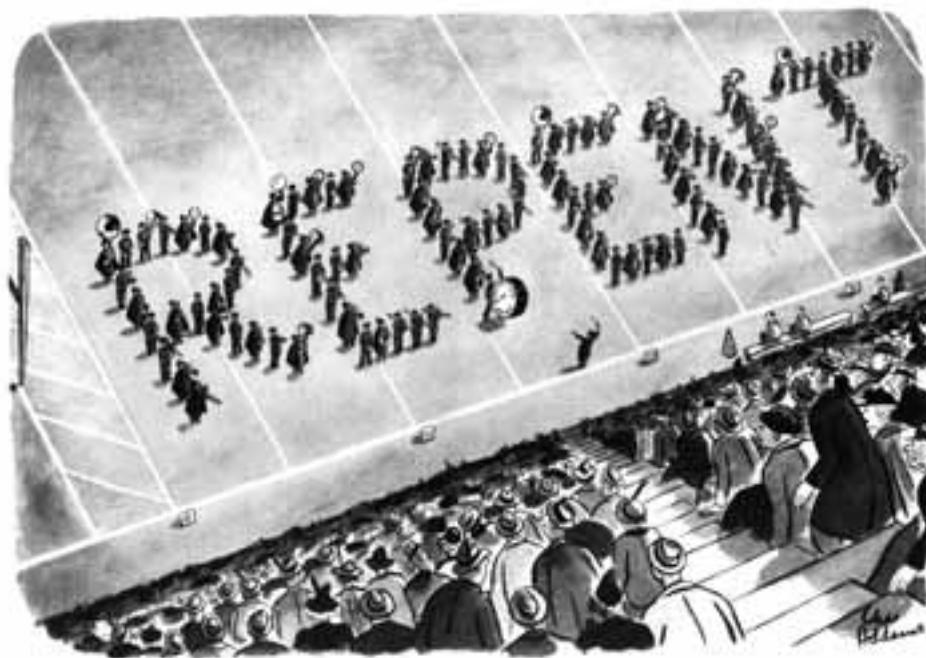

"Now, boys, this is what we call a drunk."

"My son's a radical. He says some day I'll pull this thing and nobody will come."

“Get me ‘Gone With the Wind,’ Yama. I’m filthy dirty.”

"The plants are all right, but John seems to have something."

“You tell me if I bend my knees, Sugar.”

“Hey, who tore out the Arrivals of Buyers?”

"I don't care what you say—I'm cold!"

“You don’t want the blue uniform, nor the gray, nor the maroon. Now, Joseph, what do you want?”

“Unfortunately I found out too late that I had merely taken the place of his mother.”

“Oh, look at Madame—femme fatale!”

“Don’t keep calling that a dingus!”

“Hustle out to Public School 149, enroll, mingle with the students, and shoot me a red-hot exposé of conditions!”

"I'm Virgo with the moon in Aries, if that will help you any."

"There'll be a brief ceremony at one o'clock. We're holing through into Stern's Basement."

Please, Mr. Duffy! Don't be sentimental!"

"I suppose you take on a lot of weight during peace, General."

"Your only hope is to clown it."

“Then came the divorce, and she got the car and he got the trailer.”

OUR MODERN GALLERY OF ANCIENT FAVORITES
The Blessed and the Damned

Richard Taylor (11/21/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

“His system has only one flaw—it doesn’t give him time to place a bet.”

"Don't be angry with me now if I can't match those earrings in Venice."

“Well, I guess they’ve got us topped.”

"Well, you said I had to choose, didn't you?"

"His record's O.K., Captain—forty-six arrests but no convictions."

“Haven’t you got a thin best-seller?”

“He saw it at the Auto Show, liked it, and bought it.”

"Shouldn't he have caught that?"

"I don't want any part of it!"

“You needn’t try to understand the meaning of the line, Miss Foster. Just say it.”

“Pop says it’s just a capitalistic smokescreen to keep our minds off our grievances.”

"Deliver this telegram to Noel Coward and wait for a riposte."

STRANGE PEOPLE
(1 OF 7)

Nature Cultist

STRANGE PEOPLE
(2 OF 7)

One-Man Band

STRANGE PEOPLE
(3 OF 7)

Mid-Victorian Relic

STRANGE PEOPLE
(4 OF 7)

Harlem Swami

STRANGE PEOPLE
(5 OF 7)

Duncan Disciple

STRANGE PEOPLE
(6 OF 7)

Creative Artists

STRANGE PEOPLE
(7 OF 7)

Physical-Culture Nut

"I've promised him my next day off."

“Should a letter to the B. B. Ericson Company end with two pistol shots and a moan?”

"I'm beginning to worry about 9386. His bed wasn't slept in last night."

"I saw it in 'Popular Mechanics'—a combination girdle and money belt."

“Do you mind if I smoke?”

“Do you know, Edward, I just can’t seem to visualize Mr. Tugwell in molasses.”

“Be careful, dear!”

“Just listen to the Good Will Court next Sunday, that’s all!”

“Mr. Lathrop always has such a difficult time breaking in a new secretary.”

"Must be something I ate."

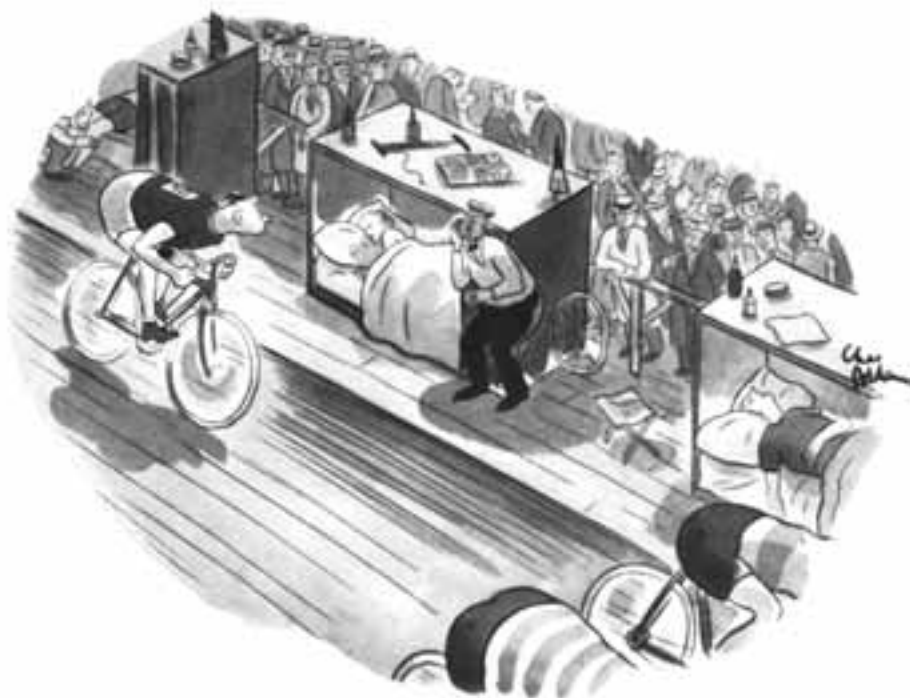

"Would you be willing to give a dollar sixty-five for Tallulah Bankhead?"

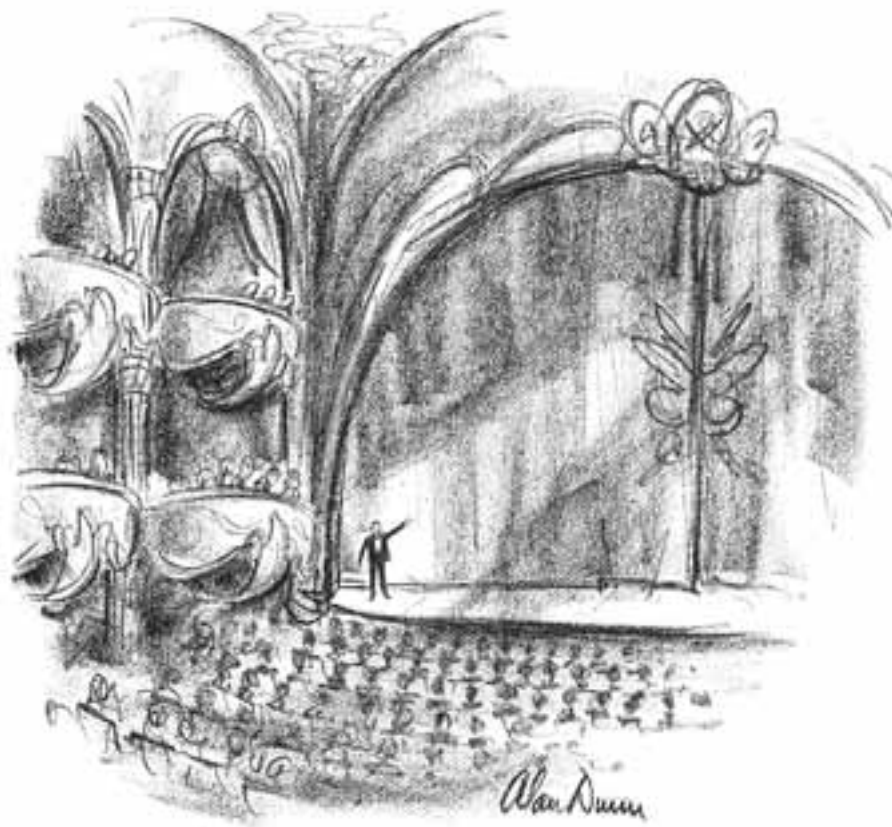

“But really, Mr. Markovitz, we didn’t expect a political commentary.”

"He just bought all we had and gave them their freedom."

"Hey, Mr. Raboldi! Surprise!"

"Is there an alienist in the house?"

"I don't care how you get it, but by God, men, don't come back here without a picture of Mrs. S. Stanwood Menken!"

"Mrs. Forbes is going to wear one of our foundation garments on the Queen Mary."

"You have to expect a little trouble when you let it go so long."

“What was it we were drinking last night that I didn’t feel?”

“May I present Mr. Kearney, our guest conductor?”

"Watch it, Montgomery! He's going to turn 'em loose!"

“... then you come out of the Valley of Doom into the Mountains of the Moon. You’ll have to take most of that in second.”

“What’s the use of being forceful when I don’t want anything?”

"I have him here to fill in embarrassing lulls in the conversation."

"This is Mr. Raleigh. En garde!"

"I can tell you right now you're never going to learn anything just standing there."

"I wish to report, General, that the enemy has captured everyone but us."

“There is no Santa Claus. Gimbel’s always tells the truth.”

"This is eight dollars a term extra."

“May I use your telephone?”

"He doesn't know anything except facts."

"I don't even try to understand them any more."

“Er . . . sorry!”

"I'm thinking of getting the missus a pair of bookends."

*"To put it frankly, Mr. Morgan,
I don't feel I'm getting my share of the gravy."*

“You know, Miguel, it is more peaceful since Señor Roosevelt left.”

"Maybe you'd better stay out of 'Silent Night' altogether, Ian."

"I'm looking for a chemistry set that won't do anything."

"It's just a question of directing that energy into another field—quilting, for example."

"We might as well face it, Troxwell. It's laying an egg."

"He's very much at ease in the pulpit too."

OUR MODERN GALLERY OF ANCIENT FAVORITES
Pygmalion and Galatea

Richard Taylor (12/19/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

"Fifth floor—crockery, chinaware, kitchen utensils, and a mysterious little room marked 'No Admittance'!"

"I guess they don't want their pictures taken."

"Sort of hits you in the eye, doesn't it?"

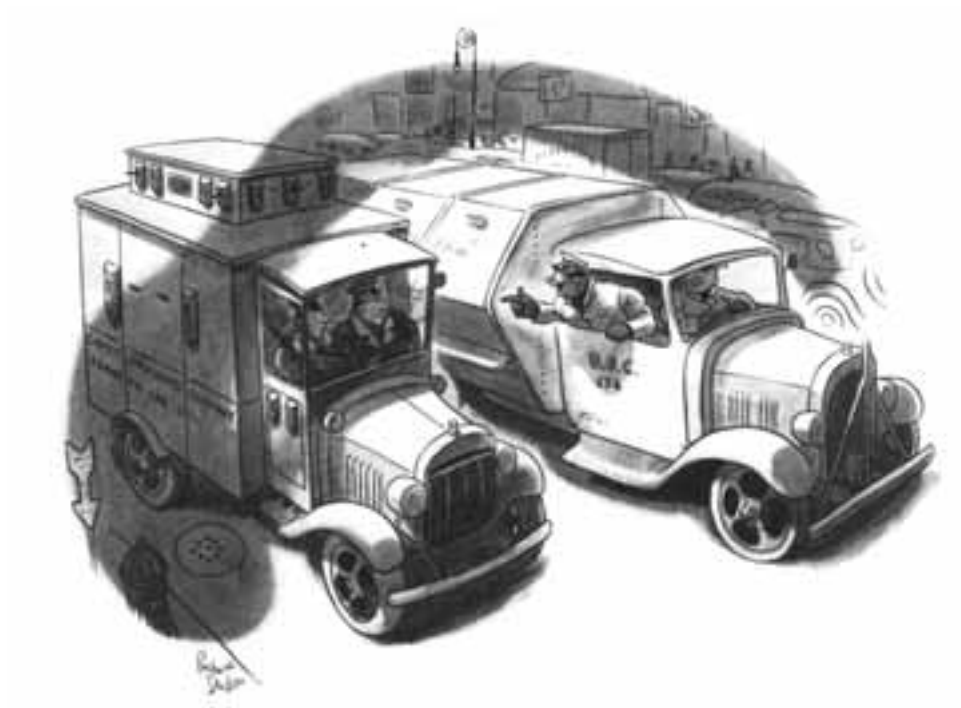

"I'd never let a doll of mine wear a dress like that."

“‘Billboard,’ please.”

“Bang!”

“Stop acting so innocent, Craddock! You know very well what signals.”

“Tell him I have information of a startling nature.”

“Don’t answer now, dear. Wait till you have another double brandy.”

“Most of them are mysteries to me, but that one on the right gives stock-market averages.”

"Sam, you promised to help me trim the tree!"

"I don't think he's even trying."

*"I want it for gifts. The one-dollar bills must be brand-new.
The tens and twenties it doesn't matter about."*

Leonard Dove (12/26/1936)

Return to Main Menu ►

HOLIDAY TRIALS (I OF 6)

Tree

HOLIDAY TRIALS (2 OF 6)

Deadly Weapon

HOLIDAY TRIALS (3 OF 6)

The Unsigned Card

HOLIDAY TRIALS (4 OF 6)

Warning re Santa Claus

HOLIDAY TRIALS (5 OF 6)

Office Wit

HOLIDAY TRIALS (6 OF 6)

Pre-Christmas Smirk

"Wise guy, eh?"

“Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, watch yer step, keep in line! Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, watch yer step, keep in . . .”

"I see they've revived Ruth Draper."